Join the fight, give to LCPF

Brian L. Renfroe

Every day, NALC uses its influence to protect our members. We know that service depends on us. The communities we serve must understand that decent pay and working conditions for us—the people who deliver every day—is critical to the service they expect.

As I write this, we are weeks away from our Feb. 22 day of action, when branches across the country will come together to remind everyone of our value and call for what is fair at the bargaining table. Our "Fight Like Hell!" rallies to secure a fair contract are just the start of sending a strong message while we're at the bargaining table.

We deserve more.

We must also continue building our influence to ensure that Congress and the administration do right by letter carriers. While we're fortunate to bargain for our wages and not rely on Congress for our raises, as many federal employees do, we must remember that what happens on Capitol Hill still affects us in many ways, including at the bargaining table.

Congress has oversight of the Postal Service. That means it can (and has) passed meaningful legislation that affects our bargaining, such as the agency's bottom line. Changes that would improve the Postal Service's finances, such as allowing the agency to invest its health care retirement funds more responsibly cannot be done without the approval of Congress. To see these types of changes, we need to grow the pro-letter carrier majority that supports us.

This month's magazine focuses on the Letter Carrier Political Fund (LCPF), NALC's political action committee, and recognizes our members who are LCPF contributors. If you already are a contributor, thank you for making one of the best investments in your job and retirement security. If you haven't signed up yet, I hope this article, and the entire magazine, will encourage you to join our fight on Capitol Hill.

LCPF is particularly important as we continue another year of fighting like hell on multiple fronts. In 2025, NALC successfully fended off multiple threats to our members, including immediately shutting down some ideas before they even took shape. For example, the White House pushed to have the Department of Commerce take over the Postal Service, which would have effectively ended package delivery at the behest of private shippers.

Other ideas came in more concrete form. During the budget reconciliation process on Capitol Hill, NALC leveraged its strength to eliminate provisions that would have cut our retirement benefits and required us to pay more for them. The LCPF helped fuel our efforts to shut down these terrible proposals.

Our strength is created primarily through our collective action and our political influence through LCPF. Because of it, we walked out of 2025 unscathed. Even more, our efforts protected other federal employees and their unions, which have been under intense fire since the new administration and Congress convened last year.

We have long talked about the importance of supporting those who support us, regardless of their political or personal beliefs. It's that simple. Anytime we smell trouble, we activate our friends on both sides of the aisle in the House and Senate. That activation comes from clear and consistent communication with offices year-round both in districts nationwide and in Washington. It takes resources to maintain that presence through strategic access. LCPF is that primary resource.

Currently, only 12 percent of NALC members contribute to LCPF. What we've accomplished and fended off with only 12 percent participation is incredible. If more members contributed to LCPF, our influence would be greater, our voice would be louder, and our impact on Capitol Hill would grow. We are stronger than ever before, but we can become even stronger and more influential.

If you are a contributor, ask fellow NALC members to join the fight and sign up. Face-to-face conversations about the issues that affect letter carriers the most are what help LCPF grow. Talking about politics can be difficult, but it's clear and easy in our union. We support those who support us and our issues. Plain and simple. We use LCPF funds to support candidates who support us across the political spectrum. That is how we keep a pro-letter carrier Congress in place regardless of which party has a majority.

A little bit from a lot of people goes a long way. It builds strength and solidarity. I urge you to join the fight.

By making a contribution to the Letter Carrier Political Fund, you are doing so voluntarily with the understanding that your contribution is not a condition of membership in the National Association of Letter Carriers or of employment by the Postal Service, nor is it part of union dues. You have a right to refuse to contribute without any reprisal. The Letter Carrier Political Fund will use the money it receives to contribute to candidates for federal office and undertake other political spending as permitted by law. Your selection shall remain in full force and effect until canceled. Contributions to the Letter Carrier Political Fund are not deductible for federal income tax purposes. Federal law prohibits the Letter Carrier Political Fund from soliciting contributions from individuals who are not NALC members, executive and administrative staff or their families. Any contribution received from such an individual will be refunded to that contributor. Federal law requires us to use our best efforts to collect and report the name, mailing address, occupation and name of employer of individuals whose contributions exceed $200 per calendar year. Any guideline amount is merely a suggestion, and an individual is free to contribute more or less than the guideline suggests and the union will not favor or disadvantage anyone by reason of the amount of his or her contribution or decision not to contribute.

News from Washington

Looking for bipartisan support for priority legislation

Even though one party controls the House of Representatives, the Senate and the White House, we are still faced with one of the most ineffective congresses in history. Tight margins, deep partisan divides and limited days on the congressional calendar make it difficult for any legislation to pass. For example, at press time, Congress was working to avoid a government shutdown following the longest shutdown in history last year.

While Republicans control the Senate with a 53-47 majority, in a chamber where 60 votes are typically needed to pass legislation, bipartisanship is essential. In the House, the margins are even tighter. With the recent death of Rep. Doug LaMalfa (R-CA) and the resignation of Rep. Marjorie Taylor Greene (R-GA), Republicans' 218-213 majority (with four vacant seats) is extremely slim.

Currently, 47 House members and 11 senators have announced they will retire at the end of the year or seek another office. On top of that, given Congress's growing ineffectiveness, many members are headed for the exit. It is highly anticipated that more retirements will be announced ahead of the midterms. Each departure creates major challenges for the 119th Congress in advancing legislation leading up to the midterm elections this fall.

Historically, the party that controls the White House typically loses seats in the midterms, but with widespread redistricting and many lawmakers opting for retirement or seeking higher office and divisions within the parties as priorities are addressed, that is no longer a given. But that is not a deterrent. In fact, lawmakers are looking for commonsense priorities.

As we look ahead to the midterms, NALC is looking for every opportunity to demonstrate how our priorities are good for letter carriers, good for the communities that Congress represents and vital to ensuring that the Postal Service's vast network is protected. This landscape creates an excellent opportunity for a bipartisan bill such as the Protect Our Letter Carriers Act (H.R. 1065).

At press time, this bill had 168 co-sponsors (144 Democrats and 24 Republicans). There is an appetite for this on both sides of the aisle, and NALC is considering two House procedures to bring the bill to the House floor for a vote. The first is a discharge petition, a procedure to force a bill out of committee by overriding the majority. This procedure requires 218 co-sponsors, but H.R. 1065 is currently 50 co-sponsors short of this threshold. The second option is advancing the bill by using the consensus calendar. This procedure is used to expedite legislation with bipartisan support of 290 or more co-sponsors. Letter carriers may recall that this was used to advance a stand-alone bill in the House to eliminate the retiree health care pre-funding mandate, which we parlayed into the Postal Service Reform Act, signed into law in 2022.

These procedures create a way to bypass House leadership and bring widely supported bills to the floor.

In addition, we utilize this landscape to gain traction on bipartisan concepts, such as allowing the Postal Service to responsibly invest its health care retirement funds, ultimately making a major difference on the agency's balance sheet and at the bargaining table. NALC has always navigated the changing landscapes to find a way to meet our goals and maintain strong defenses against any attacks that come our way.

As we seek out opportunities to advance our priorities, we encourage all NALC members to ask their members of Congress to co-sponsor our priority bills below:

- The Protect Our Letter Carriers Act (H.R. 1065/S. 463)—168 co-sponsors in the House and 11 in the Senate
- The Federal Retirement Fairness Act (H.R. 1522)—124 co-sponsors
- The Anti-privatization resolu-tion (H.Res. 70/S.Res. 147)—231 co-sponsors in the House and seven in the Senate
- The Improving Access to Workers' Compensation for Injured Federal Workers Act (H.R. 3170/S. 3296)—17 co-sponsors in the House and one in the Senate
- The Equal COLA Act (H.R. 491/S. 642)—60 co-sponsors in the House and 15 in the Senate

House Labor Caucus briefed on letter carrier issues

On Jan. 21, NALC President Brian L. Renfroe briefed the House Labor Caucus on the most pressing issues facing letter carriers on and off Capitol Hill.

The Labor Caucus is a group of more than 120 representatives working to advance the priorities of workers and the labor movement.

The following representatives attended the meeting: Mark Pocan (D-WI), Steven Horsford (D-NV), Steven Lynch (D-MA), Judy Chu (D-CA), Jesus "Chuy" Garcia (D-IL), Nikki Budzinski (D-IL),

Salud Carbajal (D-CA), Marcy Kaptur (D-OH), Emilia Sykes (D-OH), Suzanne Bonamici (D-OR), Bobby Scott (D-VA), Sean Casten (D-IL), LaMonica McIver (D-NJ), Chris Deluzio (D-PA), Glenn Ivey (D-MD), Gil Cisneros (D-CA), Greg Landsman (D-OH), James Walkinshaw (D-VA) and Kweisi Mfume (D-MD).

Caucus members were briefed on and urged to support NALC's priority legislation, which includes the Protect Our Letter Carriers Act (H.R. 1065), the Federal Retirement Fairness Act (H.R. 1522), the Improving Access to Workers' Compensation Act (H.R. 3170), the anti-privatization resolution (H.Res. 70) and the USPS Shipping Equity Act (H.R. 3011). They were also briefed on the Postal Service's finances, the need to modernize the network and vote-by-mail, especially related to the Postal Service's recent announcement regarding postmark timing.

A significant portion of the meeting was devoted to representatives' questions. Several members raised concerns about carrier safety and on-the-job crime. Rep. Landsman, the co-lead of the Protect Our Letter Carriers Act, urged caucus members to co-sponsor the bill, emphasizing that the goal was to reach 290 supporters to help bring it to the House floor.

NALC President Brian L. Renfroe briefs the House Labor Caucus on several issues facing letter carriers both on the route and on Capitol Hill.

Many members brought up the upcoming midterm elections and how the postmark announcement could affect mail-in ballots. Renfroe assured members that, from the delivery side, letter carriers are equipped and prepared to get the job done as they always have.

Rep. Cisneros asked about the status of new postal vehicles. Renfroe explained that while they "cannot come soon enough," the production and delivery of new vehicles are on track with the projected timeline.

Rep. Walkinshaw asked questions about the Postal Service's finances and how members of Congress could support NALC in its upcoming contract negotiations. Renfroe explained that one of the biggest hurdles we face regarding our contract is ensuring postal management nationwide upholds its end of the bargain and complies with the agreed terms.

Overall, the caucus members praised letter carriers for their work and committed to ways they could support NALC members. PR

COLA: Cost-of-living adjustment

The projected accumulation toward the sixth regular COLA under the 2023-2026 National Agreement was $104 in January following the release of the December 2025 consumer price index (CPI). The sixth COLA will be based on the increase in the CPI-W between the base index month and January 2026, less any previously calculated COLAs, and will be payable the second full pay period following the release of the January 2026 index.

The 2027 projected COLAs for the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) is 0.0 percent, and for the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS), 0.0 percent, following the release of the December CPI. The 2027 COLAs will be finalized with the publication of the September 2026 CPI in October.

The 2026 COLA under the Federal Employees' Compensation Act (FECA) is 2.6 percent following the release of the December CPI.

Second group of Rank-and-File Bargaining Committees convenes

The second group of Rank-and-File Bargaining Committees convened on Jan. 12, meeting in person in the Washington, DC, area. This group of 30 letter carriers from across the country was divided into three committees: Branch Leaders, Contract Enforcers and Newer Members.

The committees underwent a similar review process to the one followed by the Executive Council and staff bargaining subcommittees.

The first group of Rank-and-File Bargaining Committees met in September 2025 and provided valuable input on potential proposals from their various perspectives.

"They came up with some of their own concepts," NALC President Brian L. Renfroe said. "On the economic front, we had an excellent discussion with them about priorities."

The subcommittees have used the first group of Rank-and-File Bargaining Committees' ideas and suggestions as they form bargaining proposals related to their National Agreement articles.

This new group followed the same format and had the opportunity to share their ideas leading into the final weeks of collective-bargaining preparations. Negotiations with the Postal Service are scheduled to begin on Feb. 25.

Renfroe met with the committees ahead of their full week of work.

"The Rank-and-File Committee is a new idea for us, and it is designed to provide what I think is going to be a very useful piece of information from these members to give to those subcommittees as part of their work," President Renfroe said.

In addition to these committees, NALC is working to make surveys available to all members prior to the start of negotiations.

"We have created more opportunities than we've ever had before for our members to be involved and give their input on certain topics and then put all of that together as we lead up to the opening of bargaining," Renfroe said.

NALC will continue to provide updates as the collective-bargaining preparation process progresses.

NALC mourns former general counsel

America's letter carriers lost a great ally and friend last month with the death of Bruce Simon, the NALC's chief attorney and general counsel from 1979 to 2022. Simon died on Jan. 11 at the age of 92.

"Bruce Simon was an invaluable resource to Presidents Sombrotto, Young and Rolando in collective bargaining and legal strategy," NALC President Brian L. Renfroe said. "He was a champion for letter carriers and working people. NALC would not be where it is today without the guidance he offered."

Simon was a graduate of Harvard Law School and in 1966 became the third partner of Cohen, Weiss and Simon, where he worked for decades to turn the New York firm into the nation's premier labor law firm representing dozens of local and national unions, including NALC.

Simon served as general counsel for three NALC presidents: Vincent R. Sombrotto, William H. Young and Fredric V. Rolando. Over their terms, he advised the union's leadership through 11 rounds of collective bargaining with the U.S. Postal Service. He also served as NALC's advocate arbitrator on the Kerr, Mittenthal, Valtin, Stark, Fleischli and Das interest arbitration panels. He and his team of lawyers also zealously fought for America's letter carriers in dozens of national and regional arbitrations and in a wide range of lawsuits, including litigation to enforce the Fair Labor Standards Act for letter carriers and other postal employees, and to protect the political free speech rights of letter carriers against unfair applications of the Hatch Act.

President Emeritus Rolando said, "We will cherish his memory."

President Emeritus Young called Simon "a great fighter for letter carriers and a dear friend," and added, "My condolences to Bruce's wife, Arlene, and to his children and grandchildren."

A tribute to Simon is at cwsny.com/in-memoriam-bruce-h-simon. PR

CCA relative standing and conversion to career

What is relative standing and how does it apply to conversion to career status? These are commonly asked questions from city carrier assistants (CCAs). As a new employee, you might have heard other employees talking about seniority and relative standing on the workroom floor, but don't exactly understand what it means or how it applies to you.

The term "seniority" is common in labor contracts. Seniority is the length of time that career city carriers work within an installation compared to the other city carriers employed at that installation. Seniority is used for various rights and benefits such as bidding for vacant duty assignments and selecting leave. CCAs, as non-career employees, do not have seniority but do have something similar called "relative standing." While relative standing is important for CCAs for a variety of reasons, it is probably most important in the relationship between relative standing and your conversion to career.

When the CCA employee classification was created in 2013, with it came the need to determine who has more ranking when it comes to factors such as promotions, opportunities to work on full-time routes with no regular carrier, and, in some offices, who gets to pick time periods for vacation first. So, the term "relative standing" was adopted as the reference to CCA ranking. In short, it is your "place in line" among the other CCAs.

Relative standing is a date. It starts on the day you are hired into an installation. The longer you are employed in that office, the more relative standing you have. For example, if you were hired on Jan. 1 in the installation and another CCA is hired on Jan. 15, you have the earliest date and would have more relative standing. However, for CCAs who, at any time after Sept. 29, 2007, worked for USPS as a transitional employee (TE), the time served as a TE is added to their relative standing. So, in this situation there might be instances where CCAs with previous TE time have more relative standing than a CCA who started in the installation first.

What happens if you choose to move to another installation? When a CCA resigns in one installation and is then rehired in another installation, the relative standing starts over on the date they begin working in their new installation. This means that you would more than likely start over again at the bottom of the relative standing list, unless you have certain TE time as described above. You should give careful consideration before you choose to do this because it could affect your conversion to career status down the road.

What happens if two or more CCAs are hired on the same day and have the same relative standing date? In the case of a tie, the relative standing on the hiring list (appointment register) will first be used to determine the CCA with higher relative standing. CCAs are ranked on the appointment register by their postal exam score combined with their applicable veterans' preference points. Second, to resolve any ties in ranking, USPS then goes by the last three or more numbers (using enough numbers to break the tie, but not fewer than three numbers) of the employee's Social Security number, from the lowest to highest.

So, why is relative standing important when it comes to converting to career?

In the 2019-2023 National Agreement, NALC and the Postal Service agreed to a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) Re: City Carrier Assistants – Conversion to Career Status. This agreement, continued in the 2023-2026 National Agreement and found on page 154, specifies that CCAs who reach 24 months of relative standing will be converted to part-time flexible (PTF) career status within their installation. The PTF classification is part of the career workforce with flexible hours rather than a fixed schedule. The PTF classification also provides additional benefits and protections beyond those you receive as CCA. Under this MOU, CCAs are given one opportunity for conversion to PTF. If, as a CCA, you decline this opportunity for conversion, you become ineligible for conversion to PTF under this agreement in the future. Keep in mind, this MOU requires 24 months of relative standing within the installation. Again, if you are considering moving to a new installation, you might want to weigh as a factor in your decision how much relative standing you already have accumulated in your current installation. For more information related to PTF rights and benefits, read the "Part-time flexible questions and answers" Contract Talk article in the September/October 2022 edition of The Postal Record, available on nalc.org.

In addition to the agreement to convert CCAs to PTFs, another path to career exists. NALC and the Postal Service also have agreed to a process through which full-time regular opportunities within the city letter carrier craft will be filled. This process includes opportunities for CCAs to be converted to full-time regular positions within their installations. This agreement, MOU Re: Full-time Regular Opportunities – City Letter Carrier Craft, is found beginning on page 156 of the current National Agreement. When a full-time opportunity exists within the installation, and the position cannot be filled by qualified full-time or PTF carriers, then the opportunity exists for a CCA to be converted. The CCA with the highest relative standing within the installation will be converted to full time. Pursuant to this MOU, a CCA who declined conversion to PTF under the agreement to convert upon 24 months of relative standing might still have the opportunity to be converted to full time.

For more information on relative standing and other items concerning CCAs who are new to NALC and the Postal Service, read the Letter Carrier Resource Guide, available under the "Quicklinks" section of the NALC website or at nalc.org/resourceguide. The agreements for conversion at 24 months and full-time regular opportunities can be found in the 2023-2026 National Agreement, which also is available as a quicklink on the NALC home page or at nalc.org/nationalagreement. PR

Deadlines approaching for national convention

Deadlines for the 74th Biennial National Convention Aug. 3-7 in Los Angeles, CA, are approaching.

Delegate eligibility lists for the convention will be mailed to all branches on or about Feb. 1 (after this issue of the magazine went to press). The lists must be completed and returned to the office of Secretary-Treasurer Nicole Rhine at NALC Headquarters no later than June 3 for branch representatives to be registered as delegates to the convention.

All proposed amendments to the NALC Constitution to be submitted for consideration at the convention must be received by Rhine's office by June 3 as well. That date is 60 days in advance of the convention, as prescribed by the NALC Constitution. Proposed amendments will appear in July's Postal Record for the membership to review.

Resolutions to be considered by delegates also must be received by the June 3 deadline to be printed in the Resolutions and Amendments book provided to delegates. Resolutions received after June 3 still may be considered at the convention.

Branches wishing to sell items in the designated branch sales area during the convention must contact Rhine's office to secure guidelines and forms. The completed forms must be returned to Headquarters by June 3 as well.

Branches may submit their newsletter or website/social media feed in the Branch Publication Competition, which will be awarded at the 2026 national convention. Information on how to submit was in the January issue of The Postal Record and is available online at nalc.org. The deadline for submitting entries to the contest is April 1.

Honoring heroic carriers

Heroism, like the mail, comes in many packages—think of police officers or firefighters. But for some citizens in need of assistance, their heroes come in the form of concerned letter carriers.

Letter carriers are members of nearly every community in this nation and know when something is wrong. Spotting fires and injuries, they often are the first to respond. The following stories document their heroism. For them, delivering for America is all in a day's work.

Carrier helps customer with aggressive dog

On Oct. 16, 2025, Marrero, LA Branch 4323 member Freddie Warren IV was walking his route when one of his customer's dogs, a young pit bull, attacked an old golden retriever belonging to a different customer.

The golden retriever was chained up in the front yard when the pit bull approached. The two dogs sniffed each other for a second before the golden retriever ran toward the pit bull, attempting to bite his middle. The homeowner came out and screamed while she attempted to pull the pit bull away from her dog. Warren was delivering across the street when he heard her screams and ran to her, seeing her holding down the pit bull.

"I was just glad the pit bull didn't bite her face, because it was real … close to her face," he said.

Finally getting the pit bull under control, the homeowner asked the 18-year carrier to grab her dog and bring him inside. As Warren did so, the chain broke and the golden retriever came loose. Warren whistled and the dog followed him inside. The owner of the pit bull then arrived at the scene and took her dog away.

Warren has seen the golden retriever's owner since and she thanked him, saying, "I didn't get a chance to, you know, thank you. And I want to hug you because you saved my dog." Warren often talked to his customer before the incident but says that they "have a stronger bond now, because I helped her out."

Alert carrier aids customer after fall

On Dec. 1, 2025, DeAnna Chatman, a Hazelwood, MO Branch 5847 letter carrier, was driving in a neighborhood on her route in the St. Louis area when she heard someone call for help and saw movement out of the corner of her eye.

"I seen someone waving their hand saying, 'Help! Help!' " Chatman said.

The four-year letter carrier found an elderly woman who had fallen inside her garage. When the carrier found her, she was barefoot and sitting on the steps inside the garage doorway, with her shoes left near her car. The weather was very cold, which made the situation more dangerous.

The customer asked her to call 911 and told Chatman that she was unable to get up after falling in her driveway about three hours prior and managed to crawl to her garage and sit on the steps.

Chatman stayed with her for about 20 minutes until an ambulance arrived. EMTs put her on a gurney, and the letter carrier returned to her route.

Later, the carrier spoke with the woman's granddaughter, who said the woman required surgery for a broken pelvic bone and then went to rehabilitation.

"They told me if I didn't call the ambulance in time, she probably wouldn't make it," she said. It was lucky the letter carrier was there, as the next closest person was a neighbor outside shoveling snow who didn't notice or hear the woman calling for help.

The carrier said she felt good about being able to help. Chatman also reflected that although carriers were told they did not have to work if conditions felt unsafe, the carrier chose to go out that day—a decision that ultimately allowed her to be there when the woman needed help.

Concerned carrier notices piled-up mail

Beverly Marschilok, an Oneonta, NY Branch 97 member, was training a new carrier on Oct. 28, 2025, when the routine instruction turned into a life-saving intervention.

That day, the 23-year carrier realized an elderly customer's mail had gone uncollected from her mailbox for four days. Marschilok knew that her customer lived alone in a small one-bedroom trailer. She gets hardship delivery of her mail, so it is brought directly to her door.

The piled-up mail wasn't the only troubling sign. Normally the customer leaves a granola bar outside for Marschilok, but there hadn't been a new one for several days. The carrier also noticed that the woman's cats were outside and unfed, making noise, hoping to be let in.

When the carrier knocked on the door, the customer immediately screamed for help, saying she had fallen and couldn't get up. The door was locked, so the customer directed the carrier to a hidden key, which the trainee used to unlock the double-bolted door. When they opened the door, they found the customer in her narrow kitchen, wedged between the refrigerator and the table where she had fallen, unable to move.

At first glance, Marschilok knew something was seriously wrong, saying of the woman's position, "Everything looked like it was going the wrong way."

Beverly Marschilok

The carrier called 911 and remained on the line with the operator while keeping the customer calm and urging her to not try to stand. Emergency responders arrived 15 to 20 minutes later, but the wait "seemed like forever," Marschilok said. The carrier stayed with the woman until help arrived, while the trainee waited outside to direct the ambulance.

Afterward, the two carriers finished the route. The customer later confirmed she had broken her ankle, requiring two surgeries and rehabilitation.

"Beverly's attentiveness and thoroughness of her mail route saved a life that day," Branch 97 President Jonathan Heelein wrote to NALC. "With a trainee in tow, Beverly was exemplary in showing how city letter carriers go above and beyond for the community we serve."

Marschilok was simply thankful she could assist. "I was just happy that I found her, and she got the help that she needed," she said.

Carrier helps elderly woman who fell

On May 31, 2025, while Amanda Schneider was delivering mail as usual, the Galesburg, IL Branch 88 member noticed something unusual at one home: The screen door was open. As she got closer, she could see an elderly woman lying motionless on the floor inside.

The nine-year letter carrier knew the woman who fell, Dorothy Long, and her husband, who was a retired letter carrier, well. Long told Schneider she had fallen and had been on the floor for about an hour, unable to get up.

"She said she'd been hollering, because there were city yard sales going on," Schneider said. "She lives in a cul-de-sac and people had been walking by."

Despite Long's attempts to get help, no one had been close enough to hear her screams.

"I tried to assist her," Schneider said. "I tried to pick her up, but I couldn't."

Schneider ran next door to find help, returning with a neighbor who helped her get Long back into a chair. Long declined medical attention at the time, assuring them she was fine, and neighbors agreed to keep an eye on her. Schneider then returned to her route.

About a week later, Long fell again and was taken to the hospital. Following that incident, both Long and her husband moved into an assisted living facility, where they have remained since.

Schneider said she is glad she is able to be there for elderly customers and to "have another set of eyes on them when family's not close." PR

All fun and games at the GATOR BOWL

North Florida Branch 53 member Bob Henning retired in 2005 and no longer walks a route, but he has never slowed down.

As a volunteer for the Gator Bowl, one of the oldest annual college football bowl games, which was played on Dec. 27 in 2025, Henning kept track of his steps. "I walked over 14,000 steps that day, so I was a little tired after that game," he said.

This was the 21st year that Henning has worked at the Gator Bowl, held each year in Jacksonville, FL. The game is usually played on or around New Year's Day and is one of the oldest bowl games to be televised.

Henning and his daughter Lisa pose for a photo after he won the Volunteer of the Year award at the Gator Bowl last year.

Along with the football game, the Gator Bowl has events and activities for attendees. Henning was in charge of the games for children held in different areas around the stadium before the main event. He worked from 2 p.m. until kickoff at 7:30, when he got to sit and watch the game.

"I'm what they call a volunteer captain. I have oversight of all the interactive games. It changes from year to year what I'm doing, but for the last three years, I've done that, the interactive games for the kids and stuff when they come in. So, they have a field goal thing. They've got passing at targets, soccer, that stuff," he said.

About 60 volunteers keep the events going each year with Henning. Each of them get two free tickets to the game. In the December game, Henning watched the University of Virginia Cavaliers defeat the University of Missouri Tigers 13-7 with 32,000 other football fans at EverBank Stadium.

Henning's Gator Bowl tenure began after he volunteered for another football game—the NFL's Super Bowl in Jacksonville in 2005.

"I was a volunteer to Super Bowl, and I was working three of the interactive games they had there the whole week of Super Bowl. And one of the people from the Gator Bowl came up to me and asked me if I'd be interested. I said, 'Yeah.' So, I've been doing it ever since." He helped manage the Gator Bowl parade, a major part of the annual festivities that featured marching bands, floats and community groups, but has since been phased out. He then became event captain for the pregame interactive games.

Henning began his career delivering mail and serving his country at the same time. Joining the Navy in 1966 after high school, he became a postal clerk on the aircraft carrier USS Ticonderoga. After two cruises to Vietnam, he was transferred to a Navy post office at Subic Bay in the Philippines until his discharge in 1970.

The next year, he took a letter carrier job with USPS in his hometown of West Palm Beach, FL. In 65 days, Henning became a steward and never looked back. He began a long career of service through the union.

Henning ended up transferring to new cities several times for family reasons—he has been a member of five NALC branches in Florida and New England. At three of those branches, Henning served as branch president.

Henning also served in a long list of other leadership positions for all of his 55 years of NALC membership, ranging from food drive coordinator, scribe, AFL-CIO delegate and state association district chairman to arbitration advocate.

As with many active NALC members, Henning's union experience stems from his family roots.

"My dad was a machinist with Pratt and Whitney Aircraft in West Palm when I was growing up," he said. "So, when the opportunity presented itself, I became active with the union."

Henning still finds ways to serve his brethren in the military as well. Two or three times a month since 2021, Henning volunteers for eight-hour shifts at a lounge for active-duty military service members and veterans at the Jacksonville Airport.

"We supply coffee, snacks, some refrigerated items and some hot pockets and stuff like that where they could heat it up. And we have a big TV in there and lounge chairs and stuff," he said.

Ever the volunteer, Henning was on his way to the airport lounge in 2024 when he received a phone call with the news that he had been chosen as Volunteer of the Year for the Gator Bowl.

"When I got the call about my Volunteer of the Year award at the Gator Bowl, I was surprised and grateful," Henning said, but added, "I do not do volunteer work for awards, I do it for the gratification I feel when doing it for the public."

Henning recalled a fellow member of his current branch, Lloyd Pearson, who, before he died at age 102 in 2023, gave Henning advice that he carries with him to this day.

"He told me that his key to longevity was to stay busy," Henning said, and it continues to keep him on the move. PR

NALC recognizes additional Disaster Relief Foundation donors

NALC Disaster Relief Foundation

Make a donation by sending a check or money order to NALC:

Disaster Relief Foundation
100 Indiana Ave. NW
Washington, DC 20001-2144

NALC created the the NALC Disaster Relief Foundation (DRF) in 2018 after many branches asked for help getting donations or other assistance to their fellow carriers facing disasters.

Every penny of donations to DRF goes directly to individual carriers or branches needing assistance—no administrative costs are deducted.

The foundation provides aid in the form of supplies or grants, and it maintains a trained volunteer network to respond quickly to disasters. Grants are provided for property damage sustained to a primary residence, automobile or personal property from natural disasters, and are provided only to NALC members. The application for a relief grant is on the foundation's website, nalc.org/disaster.

Donations can be sent to: NALC Disaster Relief Foundation, 100 Indiana Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20001-2144; or made by credit card at nalc.org/ndrfdonate.

Carriers and the mail make news online

Jacqueline La Rosa

Mail-centered stories frequently appear on social media and online news sites. The following are a few that have come to NALC's attention recently. If you find a story you'd like us to consider featuring, send it to postalrecord@nalc.org.

New York carrier recognized for 38 years of service

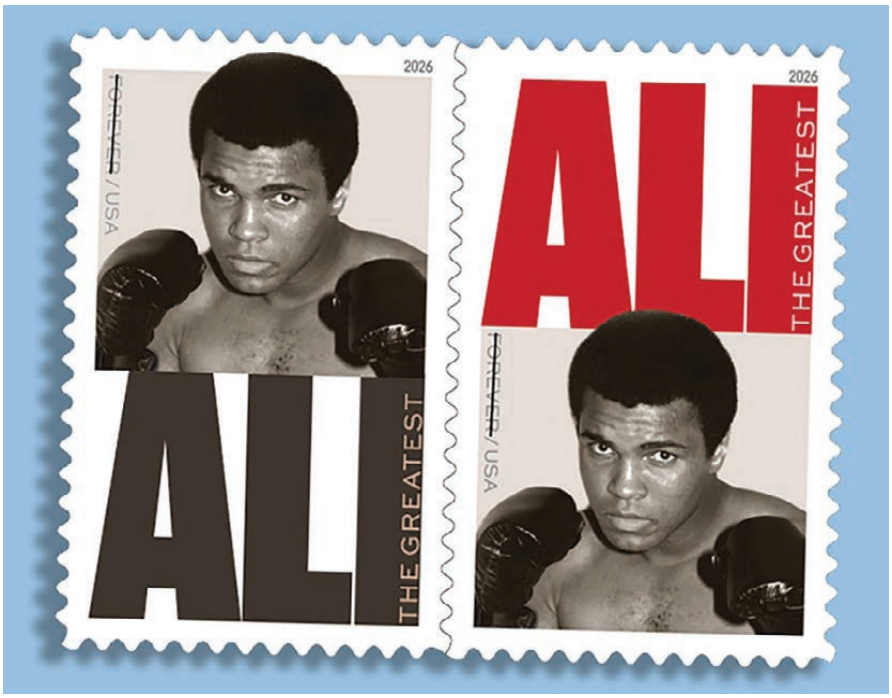
Jacqueline La Rosa, a Long Island Merged, NY Branch 6000 letter carrier in Garden City, marked 38 years delivering mail in her community in December. She was honored as part of the U.S. Postal Service's "For the Long Haul" campaign honoring employees with more than 25 years in the same job.

"I've made so many friends here," she told the Garden City Patch. "We've shared many life events together. Many people still remember when I was having my son 26 years ago, and they love hearing how far he has come in life. ... I enjoy watching other people's families grow as well, so many beautiful babies that I have had the pleasure to watch grow up, including three children that I watched grow up, have now moved back onto my route and started families of their own."

She typically walks 23,000 steps a day, and on long days up to 36,000. Despite the challenges being a letter carrier can present, she enjoys serving her community.

"I am a people person," she said. "I love people. I love being outside in nature, and I even enjoy the cold. You just have to know how to dress for the weather. I love working in Garden City because there is such a sense of community—they watch out for each other; they watch out for me."

The new Muhammad Ali stamps



Postal Service releases stamp honoring Muhammad Ali

Muhammad Ali, a three-time world heavyweight boxing champion, will be featured on a panel of two stamps. The stamps depict an image of Ali with his gloves up and "ALI" in black on one variation of the stamp and in red on the other.

Ali was more than just a boxer, despite his multiple titles and Olympic gold medal win. After being drafted to the Vietnam War in 1966, he refused to serve—both as a conscientious objector and because of his religion, Islam. He was sentenced to five years of jail time.

Ali's popularity took a hit for these actions, but as the anti-war sentiment grew, so did his popularity. He continued to champion civil rights and humanitarian causes throughout his life. He died in 2016.

The stamp was released during a First Day of Issue Ceremony on Jan. 15 at the University of Louisville in Kentucky.

Ali famously said, “I should be a postage stamp, because that’s the only way I’ll ever get licked.”

49th Black Heritage stamp issued

The 49th Black Heritage stamp was released on Jan. 29 in Boston, MA. It honors Phillis Wheatley, who was the first African American author to publish a book. The stamp depicts a drawing of Wheatley sitting at a table looking up from what she was writing.

Wheatley was enslaved in Boston and her book, Poems on Various Subjects, Religious and Moral, was denied publishing due to racial discrimination in the American colonies during the 18th century. So, she traveled to London, where her book was published in 1773. Her poems explored themes of religion, her African heritage and the injustice of slavery. Due to her influence and achievements, she is often called “the mother of African American literature.”

From pen pals to doctor and patient

Megan Lewis, a woman living in Pennsylvania, was visiting her parents for Thanksgiving when her mother had her go through some papers she had saved from Lewis’s childhood. She found letters from Suzanne Pugh, a pen pal she wrote to during the 1994-1995 school year, when Lewis was in second grade and Pugh was in 11th grade. She googled her pen pal’s name and found that it was the doctor who delivered her two children in southeastern Pennsylvania.

“I was shocked to get your picture when I googled the name,” Lewis told Pugh in a video captured by the local news affiliate. “My mouth dropped. I could not believe my pen pal was Dr. [Suzanne] Pugh, who was my OB-GYN and delivered my two kids, Caroline and Jack.”

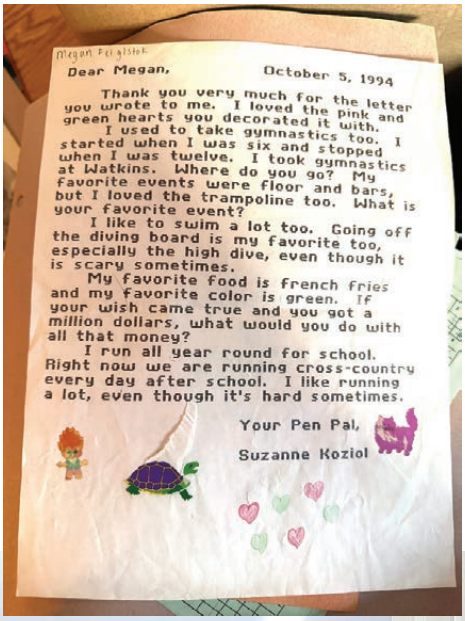
According to one of the letters, they had met each other in person at some point. Despite that, neither of them had any idea that they had been pen pals until finding the letters.

The story has since appeared in national media outlets, such as ABC News and People magazine.

“It’s really cool, because I’ve always just felt like Megan was such a special person, and we really connected, and to take care of people I kind of knew when I was younger is really fun, so to find out that Megan was one of those people is really cool,” Pugh said. “We have this, like, really awesome connection.”

Lewis concurred, telling ABC News, “If I could go back in time and tell my 7-year-old self that the pen pal that I would be writing to would end up taking care of me during my pregnancies and delivering my kids, I don’t know that I’d believe it. I feel like it’s just an incredible connection that she and I both have.” PR

The pen pal letter Lewis received in second grade



Megan Feigelstock

Dear Megan, October 5, 1994

Thank you very much for the letter you wrote to me. I loved the pink and green hearts you decorated it with.

I used to take gymnastics too. I started when I was six and stopped when I was twelve. I took gymnastics at Watkins. Where do you go? My favorite events were floor and bars, but I loved the trampoline too. What is your favorite event?

I like to swim a lot too. Going off the diving board is my favorite too, especially the high dive, even though it is scary sometimes.

My favorite food is french fries and my favorite color is green. If your wish came true and you got a million dollars, what would you do with all that money?

I run all year round for school. Right now we are running cross-country every day after school. I like running a lot, even though it's hard sometimes.

Your Pen Pal,

Suzanne Koziol

- If the employee had health insurance through the NALC Health Benefit Plan, call 888-636-6252. If the employee had health insurance through a different Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) plan, call the number on the back of the insurance card. Health insurance coverage for a surviving spouse and dependent children continues automatically if the employee had family coverage at the time of death and if a monthly survivor annuity is payable.
- Obtain a sufficient number of death certificates for your needs from the mortuary.

When a retired letter carrier dies...

- Notify the Office of Personnel Management (OPM). This should be done as soon as possible through its website, by email, by phone or by mail. To report the death of a deceased annuitant to OPM, do one of the following:
  - Visit servicesonline.opm.gov and click on "Report an Annuitant Death." This will take you to an online form to complete and submit.
  - Send an email to retire@opm.gov and include the following information pertaining to the annuitant and survivor(s): Retired letter carrier's full name, CSA number, date of birth, Social Security number, survivor's full name, relationship to the deceased, Social Security number, date of birth, address and phone number.
  - Call OPM at 888-767-6738.*
  - Write to OPM at Office of Personnel Management, P.O. Box 45, Boyers, PA 16017. Provide the information on the deceased and survivor(s) as above.

  *Calling OPM can sometimes take several attempts due to high call volumes. Callers may be on hold for 20 minutes or longer. The NALC Retirement Department staff is familiar with OPM and is well-versed in explaining OPM's processes. Upon request, the NALC Retirement Department will report the death of a retired member to OPM and answer any questions. To contact the NALC Retirement Department, call toll-free at 800-424-5186 on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from 10 a.m.-12 p.m. and 2 p.m.-4 p.m. Eastern Standard Time. The NALC Retirement Department also can be reached Monday-Friday from 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m. at 202-393-4695. Long distance charges may apply.
- Once the death of an annuitant has been reported to OPM, the OPM will stop payment of the monthly annuity and mail the applicable claim forms to the survivor. In most cases, two forms will be included in the packet:
  - application for death benefits under the retirement system (death benefits include survivor benefits and/or any unpaid annuity balance) and
  - application for Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance (FEGLI)
  - The packet also includes pre-addressed return envelopes, color-coded pink and blue, to facilitate rapid distribution and processing within OPM.
- Notify the bank where annuity payments are deposited, as well as any other of the retiree's financial institutions. Any annuity payments deposited after the date of death will be reclaimed by OPM. Return any uncashed annuity checks to the address on the accompanying Treasury Department envelope.
- Obtain enough death certificates for your needs from the mortuary.
- Notify the retired letter carrier's NALC branch.
- If the retiree was a veteran, notify Veterans' Affairs at 800-827-1000.
- Call the Social Security Administration at 800-772-1213.
- Notify insurance companies (life, health, home, automobile, etc.).
- If the retiree had a policy with NALC's Mutual Benefit Association, call 202-638-4318 between 8 a.m.-3:30 p.m. EST, or write to MBA, 100 Indiana Ave. NW, Suite 510, Washington, DC 20001-2144.
- If the retiree had health insurance through the NALC Health Benefit Plan or any other FEHB plan, the OPM will inform the health plan. When a spouse is entitled to survivor benefits, he or she will receive continuous health insurance coverage as long as they were covered under their spouse's FEHB plan at the time of death. The health plan will automatically change to self-only and be switched to the surviving spouse's name.
- If the retiree participated in the Thrift Savings Plan, contact the TSP at 877-968-3778.

If the spouse of a retired letter carrier dies, call the NALC Retirement Department for instructions on how to restore annuity to full amount, switch health coverage from family to self (unless you have dependent children) and change beneficiaries.

Veteran profile: Beverly Melching

Beverly Melching is a longtime letter carrier and a Navy veteran. She has delivered mail in Jacksonville, NC, for nearly 27 years and is a member of Branch 3984. Before joining the Postal Service, Melching served in the Navy from 1989 to 1993, enlisting right after high school out of a desire to serve her country and see the world. During her naval service, Melching worked in both the deck and supply departments aboard a submarine tender, a type of depot ship that supplies and supports submarines. Her duties ranged from ship maintenance and painting to running the ship's store, where she sold everyday essentials and other items to fellow service members.

She especially enjoyed working in supply because it allowed her to meet people from every department on the ship and build lasting relationships.

"I'm still connected with quite a bit of the people today—a lot of my shipmates, we still meet up," she said. Melching tries to see them at least once a year, if not more.

Her time in the Navy included travel to ports in the United States and the Bahamas, as well as to the Persian Gulf during Operation Desert Storm and Jebel Ali, the UAE and the Persian Gulf after Operation Desert Storm. Despite being in the area at the time of the operation, she remained on the ship the entire time she was there to fulfill her duties on board as part of the deck department.

"You can see nothing but water for miles and miles, and then the sun's setting and rising when you're out there in the ocean," she said. "It's beautiful being out at sea."

Her time at sea was very memorable for her. So much so that she takes a yearly cruise and has been back to the Bahamas several times since her service.

Melching (l) served in the Navy for nearly four years. One of her favorite roles was working in the ship's store, selling everyday products to fellow service members.

She shared a funny memory from her time in the Navy. "I can never forget the first walk when I was on board a ship," she said. "You earn your sea legs, and you're walking all crooked. It was not a steady walk."

She says of her time in the military, "I feel honored and privileged overall to be able to have that experience. I would do it all over again if I had the opportunity."

After three years and 11 months, Melching left the military for personal reasons. She returned briefly to Pennsylvania before relocating to North Carolina, where she eventually became a letter carrier.

She joined the union shortly after starting with the Postal Service because, she says, she valued the job protections and benefits it provided. Over the years, she has remained active in union leadership, serving as a branch trustee and, for the past eight years, as branch secretary.

Even after decades as a letter carrier, she still enjoys the position, "My customers make my job," she said. "They make me want to come to work every day. I just love them."

Join the NALC Veterans Group

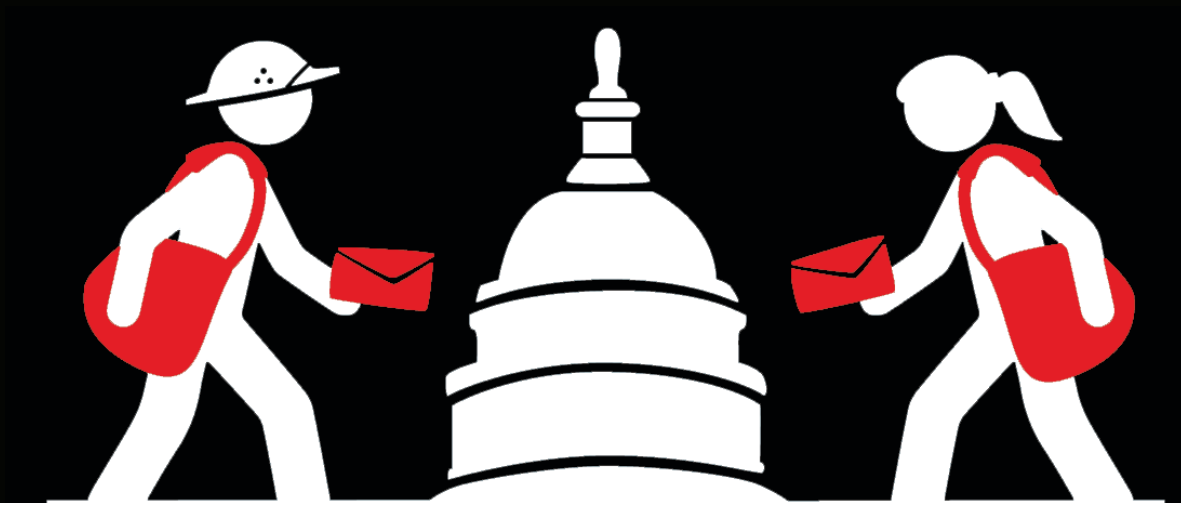
FIGHT LIKE HELL!

NALC ONLY SUCCEEDS



WHEN YOU'RE PART OF THE FIGHT

The Letter Carrier Political Fund (LCPF) is NALC's political action committee (PAC) that powers our voice and influence on Capitol Hill. Congress initiates policies that affect our collective-bargaining rights, health care and retirement benefits, and the operations of the Postal Service, so federal elected officials deeply matter. Letter carriers need a voice when lawmakers make decisions regarding our jobs and retirements. One of our main tools to achieve this is LCPF, which relies solely on voluntary donations from NALC members and their families.

"Thanks to our generous LCPF contributors, NALC has a strong and respected voice on Capitol Hill," NALC President Brian L. Renfroe said. "These funds, and the strategic ways we use them, have been key to all our legislative successes and our ability to defend letter carriers' rights. Bipartisanship has always guided LCPF, and as we continue to grow our power through the PAC in the coming year, it will remain central."

While we are in a solid place in the legislative and political sphere, we are not meeting our full potential. Currently, only 12 percent of NALC members contribute to the PAC. If that number were to double or triple, our impact would be exponential.

"NALC is not a 12 percent union," President Renfroe said. "Our members give 100 percent to our organizing, representation and community service efforts. It's time we bring that same mindset to LCPF."

While signing up for LCPF is one of the best investments you can make in your job and retirement, the current process could be improved. Signing up can be time-consuming and involves various forms. Fortunately, a portion of the 2023-2026 National Agreement simplifies the process.

The agreement allows NALC to take over the collection of dues, which will be fully implemented this year. In short, this will make signing up much easier for new, current and retired letter carriers. As this new process is being finalized, the current sign-up process is still in place, and all the necessary forms to join LCPF are included in this magazine.

"When it's easier to sign up, the possibilities for our PAC, and the results we could achieve, are endless," Renfroe said. "We have accomplished a lot with the help of LCPF in recent years. If we come together and increase LCPF participation by 30, 15, or even 5 percent, LCPF could quickly become one of the most influential PACs in the labor movement and, indeed, in all of Washington."

LCPF IS KEY FOR OFFENSE AND DEFENSE

LCPF delivers real results. Last year, we heavily leaned on our LCPF reserves when Republican leaders on Capitol Hill began an aggressive push using budget reconciliation—a legislative shortcut that bypasses the Senate filibuster—to move their tax and spending plans forward with a simple majority vote in both chambers.

Conservative lawmakers on the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform made several proposals aimed at reducing federal employee benefits or increasing what they pay for them, including:

- Raising the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) contribution rate to 4.4 percent—increasing out-of-pocket costs for workers.

- Eliminating the FERS Special Annuity Supplement—cutting early retirement income.
- Basing the FERS retiree benefit on high-5 instead of high-3 salary—reducing final benefit amounts.
- Enacting the Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) Protection Act (H.R. 7868)—reworking eligibility or cost-sharing.
- Converting new federal workers to at-will employment unless they accept higher FERS contribution rates—weakening job protections unless employees agree to pay more into retirement.
- Charging fees for federal employee Merit Systems Protection Board appeals—potentially pricing out workers from fair due process.

They also considered eliminating official time unless unions compensate the federal government, adjusting the limit of federal employee buyouts, and moving the FEHB program from a premium-share model to a voucher model.

LCPF was instrumental in helping us defeat all these proposals by the time the One Big Beautiful Bill was signed into law. Few unions and other groups came out of the process unscathed. A strong LCPF coupled with NALC's incredible fight and determination saved our retirement benefits and those of millions of other federal employees.

Letter carriers have spent years establishing relationships with members of Congress and their staff, and in Washington with LCPF. We use LCPF to support those who align with our values and goals. Regardless of political affiliation, we are committed to backing individuals who can help us achieve our objectives.

NALC is known to have one of the most bipartisan PACs in the labor movement. We proudly wear this badge of honor because, as we have seen over and over, success does not come from one side or the other. Bipartisanship is top of mind in every single one of our political efforts, and we will continue to use LCPF as a tool to establish and strengthen relationships with legislators on both sides of the aisle.

LCPF is not just for defense. We also use it to help elect lawmakers who will support letter carriers and our priority legislation. For more information on what we're working to achieve on Capitol Hill, see page 3.

HOW LCPF WORKS

Recent years have proven that a strong LCPF delivers results. But exactly how does it function, and what is its role in action?

LCPF is a voluntary PAC that takes donations only from letter carriers and their family members. Campaign fundraising is heavily regulated by federal law, so union dues cannot be used for political campaign contributions.

First, LCPF directly supports candidates' campaigns by providing the resources they need to communicate with voters. It takes a good deal of money for a candidate to run a successful campaign for office—modern campaign techniques for reaching voters can cost a campaign millions of dollars, and the 2026 elections shows all signs of continuing to be expensive. Most candidates rely on their allies for help. LCPF ensures that our friends running for office get the support they need. If they didn't get our support, the forces in Congress who want to take away everything we've earned—our health care, our pensions, our collective-bargaining rights—would likely prevail because their allies, primarily corporations and wealthy individuals, have deep pockets. With razor-thin margins and widening divisions in Congress, we must work for every inch of ground.

Second, LCPF devotes resources to get-out-the-vote efforts. This vital effort involves direct member engagement through coordinated work with our brothers and sisters in the labor movement. As part of these efforts, letter carriers reach out to labor voters to urge them to vote for pro-worker candidates and to help them with needs such as registering to vote, locating their precincts or voting by mail.

Third, the political fund supports communications, education and regular outreach throughout the election cycle to our members, so that they are well informed about voter registration, early voting, absentee voting and voting by mail, candidates, issues and state policies. Led by five legislative and political organizers (LPOs) at the regional level and hundreds of letter carrier congressional liaisons who monitor individual members of Congress and educate them—with the backing of all NALC members who participate in our grassroots efforts—the outreach program gets results because LCPF sets the stage.

"With so much at stake, NALC's legislative efforts are one of the most impactful parts of our union's work," NALC President Renfroe said. "The best and easiest way you can contribute to this effort is with a contribution to LCPF."

If you're already an LCPF contributor, please join us in our efforts to help us grow our PAC. Ask five of your branch members if they are contributors. If they aren't, explain the importance of LCPF and encourage them to sign up. Every contributor and every dollar power the LCPF.

To acknowledge those who support the LCPF, every donor is recognized each year in a special issue of The Postal Record. The list of donors who supported the LCPF in 2025 begins on page 28. The list includes the percentage of carriers from each branch and state that contribute and the per capita contribution.

If you didn't give to LCPF last year, please consider doing so this year. The amount you give isn't important—participation is. As with all our union efforts, we are stronger together.

HOW TO GIVE TO LCPF

The easiest way to support LCPF is to sign up for payroll deduction through PostalEASE, which most LCPF supporters do. Payroll deduction makes supporting the LCPF easy and affordable. This also allows the LCPF to plan strategically, based on steady, consistent support.

Career carriers and CCAs can sign up for LCPF donations through payroll deduction. However, CCAs must sign up again following a five-day break in service, and former CCAs who have converted to career status must sign up again following their conversion.

"We have enormous untapped potential in our members," Renfroe said. "The sky is the limit, and we need to reach higher. Last year proved that in the political arena, defense is just as important as offense. LCPF helped us prevail in the reconciliation fight, but we must be prepared for whatever comes next."

NALC's LPOs are one of the best available resources to help build LCPF participation in your branch, state and region. These letter carriers are assigned to specific areas and regions with the primary task of growing our PAC. If you have any questions or would like their assistance, please reach out to your designated LPO.

"I urge every NALC member to support LCPF this year so our union can continue to excel and expand its legislative work," Renfroe said. PR

NALC National Association of Letter Carriers
BRIAN L. RENFROE President
100 Indiana Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20001-2144 202.393.4695 www.nalc.org

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

NALC is fortunate that 93 percent of letter carriers choose to join our union. We have a history of successful organizing because our 290,000 active and retired members know our union delivers results.

Many external factors affect our jobs and retirements, including what occurs in the halls of Congress. Elected federal officials have a say in the Postal Service's operations as well as our health care and retirement benefits.

Through our political action committee (PAC), the Letter Carrier Political Fund (LCPF), NALC has a respected voice in Washington; however, our voice could be much louder.

Currently, only 12 percent of NALC members give to the LCPF. With these contributions, NALC has worked to get pro-letter carrier candidates from both parties elected, participated in get-out-the-vote efforts nationwide and, most importantly, successfully used our influence both offensively and defensively. Last year started off with a major victory for many of our retired members when the Social Security Fairness Act was signed into law. LCPF's impact helped make it a major bipartisan effort, delivering a win after a 40-year fight.

Much of the rest of the year was devoted to defense, as we faced one of our union's most intense legislative battles to date in the budget reconciliation process. Proposals to reduce our retirement benefits, or increase what we pay for them, came up repeatedly. Each time, as our activists fought hard, we continued to tap into LCPF's influence, and all these harmful proposals were ultimately removed.

While we do not know what 2026 has in store, last year taught us that we must be prepared for whatever comes our way. While we maintain our defenses, we are constantly seeking opportunities to advance NALC's legislative agenda.

That's why now, perhaps more than ever, it's critical to grow LCPF's power. If the 93 percent of letter carriers who choose to be members of our union also contributed to LCPF, NALC would undoubtedly have one of the most influential political voices on Capitol Hill.

If you are already an LCPF contributor, I would like to thank you for joining the fight.

If you haven't signed up to contribute yet, I encourage you to do so as soon as possible. It's the easiest way to join the fight for the future and security of your job and retirement. Every dollar and every contribution helps. If we all commit to giving a little, it will go a long way in our fight for all letter carriers.

In solidarity,

Brian L. Renfroe
President

Monthly CSRS annuity payments
for letter carriers who retire on April 1, 2026

The table below provides monthly basic annuity, survivor reduction and reduced annuity amount estimates for letter carriers covered by the Civil Service Retirement System (CSRS) who plan to take optional retirement on April 1, 2026.

Estimates are computed by using the given high-3 averages, which are based on the basic pay earned by full-time Step P carriers and vary by length of postal/federal/military service.

Reduced annuity amounts reflect the difference between the given basic annuity and survivor reduction figures.

1. High-3 averages for both grades (formerly levels) are for carriers who have worked full time on a continuous basis between April 1, 2023, and March 31, 2026, at Step O/P.

2. Years of service includes any unused sick leave.

3. The reduction for a survivor's annuity is the amount necessary to provide maximum benefits (55 percent of basic annuity) to a surviving spouse.

4. If covered by the NALC Health Benefit Plan, a further deduction of either $635.51 per month if for self plus one (PSHB code 77C), $579.41 if for self and family (PSHB code 77B), or $262.47 if for self only (PSHB code 77A) will be made. In addition, premiums for any coverage under the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Program will reduce the net annuity further.

5. Under CSRS rules, the maximum allowable yearly annuity cannot exceed 80 percent of an annuitant's high-3 average. This limit is reached when an annuitant's years of service amount to 41 years and 11 months. Individuals with more than 41 years and 11 months of service will not get a higher annuity based on additional service, but may get slightly more than 80 percent of their high-3 average on the basis of unused sick leave accumulated under CSRS.

Monthly FERS annuity payments
for letter carriers who retire on April 1, 2026

The Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) covers federal and postal employees hired on or after Jan. 1, 1984. FERS employees earn retirement benefits from three sources: the FERS Basic Annuity, Social Security and the Thrift Savings Plan.

An additional Special Annuity Supplement is paid to FERS annuitants who retire at Minimum Retirement Age (MRA) plus 30 years or more, or at age 60 plus 20 years or more. It is approximately calculated by taking an individual's Social Security age 62 benefit estimate, multiplied by the number of years of FERS coverage, divided by 40. It is payable to age 62 and then ends. Social Security benefits are payable beginning at age 62.

The table below provides monthly basic annuity, survivor deduction and net annuity amount estimates for letter carriers who plan to take optional retirement on April 1, 2026. Estimates are computed by using the given high-3 averages, which are based on the basic pay earned by full-time Step P carriers and vary by length of postal/military/federal service. Reduced annuity amounts reflect the difference between the given basic annuity and survivor reduction figures.

In addition, premiums for any coverage under the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance Program will reduce the net annuity further.
5. Under FERS rules, there is no maxiumum allowable yearly annuity. However, given the FERS formula of 1 percent per year, it is highly unlikely that any FERS employee will ever exceed the 80 percent maximum limit under CSRS.
6. FERS employees who retire at age 62 or later with at least 20 years of service receive an additional 10 percent—their annuities are calculated at 1.1 percent times years of service times high-3 average salary.

Honor Roll

NALC recognizes its brothers and sisters for their long-term membership

NALC members who have completed 50 years of membership in NALC are awarded a Life Membership Gold Card that entitles them to all privileges of membership in NALC without payment of dues. To receive a gold card and 50-year lapel pin, the branch secretary must write to the NALC secretary-treasurer and request the award for the member. This is in accordance with Article 2, Section 5 (a) of the NALC Constitution.

Additionally, the national secretary-treasurer's office handles branch requests for lapel pins. Accordingly, the secretary-treasurer's office can only provide suitable lapel pins when receiving proper notification by the branch secretary in the year when a member is to complete the following number of years as a member: 25 years, 30 years, 35 years, 40 years, 45 years, 50 years, 55 years, 60 years and 65 years. Special plaques are available for members who complete 70 years and 75 years. This is also per Article 2 of the NALC Constitution.

All requests must come from the branch secretary. Longtime members are encouraged to inform their branches when they reach a longevity benchmark.
