Last chance to join the NALC Veterans Group to receive recognition in November magazine

The November issue of The Postal Record will feature the names of the NALC Veterans Group members. If you are a veteran and would like your name to appear in this issue, you must join the NALC Veterans Group.

Veterans of the U.S. Armed Forces comprise almost a quarter of the membership of the National Association of Letter Carriers—active NALC members as well as retired members. As of right now, there are more than 19,000 members in the Veterans Group; however, there are thousands of members who are veterans and have not signed up.

These veterans traded their military uniforms for letter carrier uniforms, and they continue to serve their communities and this great nation.

The creation of the NALC Veterans Group is intended to be something tangible and useful.

The NALC Veterans Group is designed to provide NALC members who are military veterans access to the information and tools specific to veterans' rights and benefits within the U.S. Postal Service. It also is intended to give veterans a sense of family and more brotherhood/sisterhood. It seeks to provide all NALC members who are also military veterans—active full-time and part-time letter carriers, as well as retired letter carriers—resources, rights information and a sense of camaraderie.

NALC has made it easier for all veterans to sign up for the group. You can fill out the form on the website and mail it in, or you can fill out the form shown below and mail it in.

Or you can go to nalc.org/join-veterans, which will generate an email. You then will need to enter the information requested—name, address, branch number, military branch and any affiliated veterans groups. Once the fields are completed, press “send.” You will then be entered into the NALC Veterans Group and will soon be sent an NALC Veteran pin.

Don't forget about the Veterans Group memorabilia that is available to purchase if you are a member of the Veterans Group, such as a Challenge Coin or backpack. These items would make a great gift from a branch to its veterans; visit nalc.org/store or call the Supply Department at 202-662-2873 to order. All proceeds go toward future Veterans Group projects.

Join the NALC Veterans Group

The NALC Veterans Group is designed to provide NALC members—both active and retired letter carriers—who are also military veterans the ability to connect with fellow NALC veterans and stay informed on issues of importance to letter carrier veterans. It is free to join.

Members receive a pin as a symbol of gratitude for your military service and membership in NALC.

If you are interested in joining the group, complete the sign-up card at right and mail it to the address included. A fillable version is also available at nalc.org/veterans.

You continue to serve your country—THANK YOU!
