Hunger in America

Millions of Americans live in challenging situations, uncertain of where their next meal will come from or if it will come at all. They're our customers, our neighbors, our families. They include children and seniors that we see along our routes each day. Sadly, 1 in 5 households needing help with food is home to a military veteran. Some heads of households may have lost a job, are facing a serious medical condition of a family member or are dealing with an unexpected responsibility of caring for grandchildren.

Life can deal ordinary hard working people very difficult hands and so often, our food drive makes a positive difference for them. With over 25 years of letter carriers' commitment to the national food drive and over 1.5 billion pounds of food collected, our communities are still in need across the country. Please share the following statistics from the Feeding America website with carriers, management, sponsors, etc. to allow them to know that their hard work, along with yours, to Stamp Out Hunger, is needed and appreciated by so many.

42 million or 1 in 6 Americans are food insecure

Food insecurity means living at risk of hunger and not knowing where the next meal is coming from

13 million or 1 in 6 children are living in a food insecure household

Some experience developmental issues; language and motor skills, social and behavioral problems

Over 5 million seniors (50+) currently face hunger in our country

63% of our elderly citizens choose between paying for groceries and getting medical care

1 in 5 households served by Feeding America has a member who has served in the US military

7% of active-duty families face food insecurity over the past year

72% of households served by Feeding America live at or below the federal poverty level

The current individual federal poverty level is $13,860 and $23,480 for a family of three

History of the Letter Carrier Stamp Out Hunger® Food Drive

The Letter Carrier Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive is the outgrowth of a tradition of community service exhibited by members of the National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC) over the last 125 years. Carriers, who go into neighborhoods in every town six days a week, have always gotten involved when something needs to be done. Whether it is collecting funds for the Muscular Dystrophy Association (MDA); watching over the elderly through the Carrier Alert Program; delivering needed antibiotics (if called upon); assisting victims of natural disasters, or rescuing victims of fires, crime, and other mishaps, letter carriers are the eyes and ears in every neighborhood and often life savers in the community.

Over history, a number of branches collected food for those in need as part of their community service effort. Discussions were held by the NALC, USPS, and AFL-CIO to explore a more coordinated effort. A pilot drive was held in October 1991. It proved so successful, the parties worked to make it a nationwide effort. Food banks and pantries suggested that late spring would be the best time for the drive, since most of their food donations are received over the Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday periods, leaving the food shelves depleted by spring. Making matters even worse for many, school breakfast and lunch programs are not available during the summer, placing an even greater responsibility on local food pantries and food shelves.

A revamped drive was organized for the second Saturday in May 1993, with a goal of at least one NALC local branch participating in each of the 50 states. The results were astounding. Over 11 million pounds of food were collected by over 220 union branches — a one day record in the United States. From Alaska to Florida and Maine to Hawaii, letter carriers did double duty by delivering the mail and picking up donations. In 2017, we celebrated our Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive's 25th Anniversary and branches collected over 75 million pounds of food for a cumulative total of approximately 1.6 billion pounds over the history of the drive — an awesome achievement.

Each year, groups, businesses, and organizations join the NALC at the local, regional, and national levels, to help grow a campaign of hunger awareness and community action in conducting this one day, record making food drive. From the beginning, at the national level, we have had the steadfast support of the USPS, United Way, and AFL CIO. United Food and Commercial Workers union (UFCW) is the national premiere partner, adding the largest food union in the country to our efforts. Locally, the Letter Carrier Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive enjoys partnerships with many church and faith groups, Rotary and Lions Clubs, grocers and youth groups, and those who work to provide help and hope to those in need.

We look forward to another record breaking 26th year in 2018, as we are...

Understanding

Registration, Postcards, Bags and Partnership Materials

Registration:

Registration is to be done by current Branch Presidents by going online to the “Members Only” Portal at www.nalc.org. Presidents set up their account access, click on the Stamp Out Hunger logo, complete all the Food Drive information fields, click “Submit” and receive an immediate confirmation of your branch’s registration, postcard and partnership material order. If your Branch President is not registered as the president with the NALC’s Membership Department, you can call (202) 662-2836 for assistance on updating this information.

Postcards:

Postcards are paid for by our national sponsor. All branches who register by the March 1st deadline will receive postcards free of charge. The postcards will be shipped to the address specified in the online branch registration form. The postcards are bilingual (English and Spanish), have postage (G10 Permit) applied to them and are shipped in USPS reusable sleeved trays. There are 500 postcards in each bundle that are paper banded together. Eight bundles come in each sleeved tray for a total of 4,000 per tray.

Shipping: The general rule is that shipping begins at the end of March on the west coast and moves to the east. The target date for all postcards to arrive at the branch’s selected destination address is by mid-April. By going to the Food Drive Tool Kit at www.nalc.org/food, you can check on shipping dates for your region. They should arrive 3-5 days after the shipping date.

Verify that your postcards have arrived at their destination by physically seeing them and counting the trays and pallets. Mark/label the trays/pallets with a sign that says “Food Drive Postcards” so that they are not disseminated until you and/or your USPS management counterpart agree they will be distributed to letter carrier routes for delivery.

Postcards can be locally printed if your branch chooses to do so. Templates for postcards are in the Food Drive Tool Kit. These templates can be shared with a local printer and a G10 permit for postage can be applied to the printing of the postcards.

Bags:

The use of bags for the food drive is dependent on local branches getting sponsors to purchase them and/or for your branch to purchase them. Here are a few suggestions for union made paper bags and plastic bags made in the USA:

International Paper-Kraft Paper Bags

Bags have a powerful effect of doubling and potentially tripling the amount of food that is collected! Think about how many more hungry families could be fed with these results. Branches who do not currently have a bag sponsor(s) should be working towards finding one, or several sponsors. The most common sponsor for bags are local grocery stores. They have a lot of experience with paper and/or plastic bag manufacturers. They know where and how to order them. Other community businesses to reach out to are local credit unions, the food bank(s), pantries, UFCW, United Way, AFL-CIO, etc.

Bags from the Vendors above have a section which can be customized. Or, if you use a local vendor the letter carrier Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive artwork, found in the Tool Kit, can be applied to one side of the bag and the other side can have your sponsor's logo on it. If you have more than one sponsor, simply design the bag to include all sponsors' logos. This advertisement in every mailbox for a sponsor(s) and the food drive is a benefit to all the parties involved. More importantly, it will increase food donations for hungry families in our communities across the United States.

How bags get entered into the mail-stream is unique to each area and is often driven by sheer volume. Please seek assistance from your Regional Food Drive Coordinator or contact NALC Community Services at 202-393-4695 or email lettercarrierfooddrive@nalc.org .

Partnership Materials:

This material is a packet of important items to help make a professional pitch to potential local food drive sponsors. The materials include a video that stresses the importance of using bags for the food drive and how to get sponsors who can help pay for those bags. It also contains a brochure that you can present to prospective sponsors that explains the benefits of becoming a sponsor. Further items included are a food drive poster and information on purchasing paper bags. If you order the Partnership Materials, they will be sent to you as soon as possible.

More information on registration, postcards, bags and partnership materials can be found online in the Food Drive Tool Kit at www.nalc.org or by contacting your Regional Food Drive Coordinator

Securing Local Support

Local NALC support is an important factor in having a successful food drive. Early and open communications with your branch president, branch officers, stewards, retirees and fellow letter carriers about plans for the food drive can gain their support and willingness to actively participate in the food drive. This support is an essential element of helping our communities Stamp Out Hunger.

Once you create a basic plan, meet with your branch president to discuss your vision for the food drive. Also discuss your plans at branch meetings, officers meetings, stewards meetings, etc. As time goes on and you start to implement your plans, continue to update all local NALC members about any changes and/or additional plans you may have. Communication is key to gaining support.

Local USPS support is also an important factor in having a successful food drive. Meet with your local station manager and/or postmaster to discuss details leading up to the food drive and for the day of the food drive. Management's support can help with an agreed upon timeline for the distribution and delivery of postcards and bags. A sample USPS/NALC Support Letter for your local area is in this manual. By producing a commitment in writing, both parties can collaborate with the success of the food drive and supporting hungry families in our communities.

Local management support is a reinforcement of the commitment promised at the highest levels of the USPS. Instructions from US Postal Service Headquarters and Postmaster General Megan Brennan and Chief Operating Officer David Williams' letter of supports are located in this manual.

When NALC/USPS support is established, stand-ups are an excellent source of communications with both parties at the same time. Consistent stand-ups bring a sense of comradery and allow for all parties to be on the same page as to the expectations of the food drive.

During stand-ups, you can show the promotional video that is sent to you on DVD in the Partnership Materials. Your Branch President can order it during online registration for the food drive. It is also available online at www.nalc.org/food and on Liteblue via the USPS website. You can also invite a local food bank/pantry representative to share information about how the food drive can help those in your community.

Stand-ups will connect rural carriers, clerks, mail handlers, custodians, etc. with the knowledge of your food drive plans. Your open communication with these fellow co-workers can gain their support too.

Fellow co-workers' support is important for a smooth, efficient and successful food drive day. Knowing who, what, where, when, why and how will gain this support. Some questions that you will want to seek answers for are:

Will all carriers pick up the donations on their own routes? Will carriers have family members who will help them collect food? Are volunteers available, and if so, who specifically are each of them assisting? Are there maps available for the volunteers? Will all food be returned to the post office or taken directly to a local food agency? Who will secure extra needed equipment (i.e. tubs, hampers, etc.) in the weeks leading up to food drive day? Who will post posters for advertisement?

Asking co-workers questions, seeking their help and cooperation, and ensuring every route is considered, will enable everyone involved to know what to expect. It will not be possible to have a plan for every aspect of the day so make sure you have back-up plans for the unexpected that may, and probably will, come your way.

Contact Food Banks and Pantries

The decision for food distribution rests solely with your branch. Your local United Way, social services and faith community organizations are great places to find out where needy food recipients are in your community. Prior to reaching out to a food bank or pantry, you may want to read Tips/Talking Points for Sponsor Solicitation Meeting. Some of the tips will help you better inform food banks and pantries during your initial conversation with them.

Once you have enlisted the participation of a local food bank and/or pantry, ask to have a face to face meeting with them. You can also ask to tour their food bank and to have them tour the post office. Familiarity on both sides allows for better and more detailed planning for food drive day.

During your meetings, ask for their assistance in implementing and/or developing your food drive plan. Food banks are a great asset for building awareness of the drive through advertising, for helping to secure funds and/or donators for food drive bags, for getting volunteers who will help on food drive day, for setting up food collection logistics and for other types of support that proves to be very helpful in the success of the food drive.

Community and Volunteer Support

Community support is not only important to obtain for food drive day, it is also important for the months, weeks, and days leading up to the food drive. The more support you have, the bigger and better your food drive can be. There are many ways that community support can benefit your food drive plans. Reading Tips/Talking Points for Sponsor Solicitation Meeting in this manual will help you to approach getting community support with confidence. Some examples of community support that have benefited branches across the U.S. are:

- A local bank allowed advertisement of food drive day on their billboard for a week.
- A local gym donated money to buy Stamp Out Hunger Yard Signs to post in key locations.
- A local radio station taped an announcement for the food drive and replayed it in the weeks leading up to food drive day.
- The Governor prepared a proclamation for food drive day.
- A local newspaper printed a proclamation and an article about the food drive history.
- A local carwash advertised the food drive on their electronic billboard.
- A local grocery store gave a donation of chips and drinks for our volunteers.
- A local submarine shop donated foot long subs to feed the carriers and volunteers.

Volunteer support is very important on food drive day. It allows carriers, clerks, etc. the assistance that is needed to relieve the added time and physical stressors that can take place on food drive day. However, volunteer support can be beneficial prior to and after the food drive also. Here are some examples of how volunteers are so helpful:

- Retirees and family members volunteered to seek out carriers, empty their postal vehicles and bring back the food for early sorting and distribution to the food bank.

- A local Girl Scout troop handed out undelivered postcards and bags at the local grocery store the day before the food drive.
- A local trucking company gave a driver and truck free of charge on food drive day.
- High school students needing community service hours to graduate helped collect food.
- A local Boy Scout troop volunteered to sort food at the food bank the day after the food drive.
- A local church group volunteered to box up the food at the post office on food drive day.
- A military platoon and battalion enlisted to drive carrier routes to pick up food before the carriers delivered for the day.

Non-postal volunteers that you expect to work on or enter postal property must be approved for access. Discuss this with your local manager/postmaster ahead of time to avoid any problems. Many food banks have a liability waiver form that covers all volunteers who help with the food bank and this would include volunteers in connection with the Stamp Out Hunger food drive. Speak with your food agency to see if they have this form available.

Make sure to recognize your volunteers and workers on food drive day. This can be accomplished by providing food, refreshments, “give-aways”, etc. that can be donated by local community organizations and/or purchased by your branch. Offer Volunteer Certificates or Certificates of Appreciation. Give them all a sincere and personal “Thank you” for their hard work in helping to feed the community and invite them back for next year’s food drive!

Tips/Talking Points for Sponsor Solicitation Meeting

Be professional. Wear a clean uniform, NALC shirt, or something business-casual. How you present yourself is the first impression you make and it has a lasting impact.

Be on time. Time is valuable; timeliness illustrates your commitment to the drive.

Be prepared. Have information, facts and figures. Be ready to answer frequently asked questions such as these:

- “How much food did you collect in previous years?”
- “What is your goal for this year’s drive?” (Think locally and nationally.)
- “How much money do you need to fund bags or other materials?”
- “How is the money used?”

For bags: explain that the money is simply used for printing and material costs. Postage is already taken care of.

For billboards, media, yard signs, etc: have estimated costs for the amount of each needed.

- “Do the bags and marketing materials really make a difference?” (Explain how.)
- “How many bags do you need for residential deliveries?”
- “How and to whom do I give money?” (Have a plan—having them pay a vendor directly is preferred.)
- “Where does the collected food go? How does it get there?” (You may have several food recipients; list them all.)
- “How do I as a sponsor benefit? Will our name and/or logo be on the bag or on other materials?” (Use IEG valuation.)
- “What are the deadlines?” (Provide the time line you are working from for the Food Drive in your city and/or branch.)
- “Do you need volunteers? If so, how many, when and where?”
- “In what other ways can I as a sponsor help, in addition to funding?”

Leave materials. Make a nice folder labeled with “National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC)” and your contact information on the front, perhaps along with some artwork or last year’s Food Drive postcard. Include the new “Partnership Opportunities” DVD and brochure. Point them to the Food Drive’s web page: nalc.org/food. Provide the contact information for your food bank and/or other partners (with their permission).

Bring a partner. Take another carrier, branch leader, food bank representative or other sponsor with you. This can help increase the presentation energy and cover questions.

Be available. Let potential sponsors know they can contact you if they have questions. Offer to return personally as a follow-up.

Follow up. Ask for a timeline and for the contact information of the person making the decision.

Be professional, polite, passionate, persistent, positive and proud.

Media Relations for Advertising the Food Drive

Establishing media relations can greatly improve the outcome of the food drive. When people hear about the food drive in the weeks leading up to the second Saturday in May, the more likely they are to contribute. Connections with local TV stations, radio personnel, newspaper editors, etc. can help to communicate with your community.

Carriers can do TV or radio interviews to help promote the NALC Food Drive. Mentioning those who sponsor the food drive, nationally or locally, will help to ensure advertisement for them and encourage them to help in the next year's food drive. The NALC produced Public Service Announcements (PSAs), in English and Spanish, can be used for TV or radio. They are available at www.nalc.org/food in the Food Drive Tool Kit. Consider producing your own PSA with local talent at an event in your community.

Carriers can also write a letter to the editor. (See Sample letter in this manual) Use the sample as a template. Add personal touches for your community. Include names of sponsors, where people can volunteer, print proclamations, use the Family Circus cartoon, etc.

Another source of media for advertising is holding a news conference or a kick-off to announce the food drive. Perhaps inviting elected officials, food bank directors, United Way officials, AFL-CIO officials, etc. would peek interest.

Social media is a tool that can make advertising for the food drive more widespread. The vast majority of people use some type of social media these days. Examples of social media posts can be found in the tool kit. The following are types of social media that can be used to help Stamp Out Hunger:

- Facebook – “Like” our Facebook page at <http://www.facebook.com/StampOutHunger> . If you post on Facebook and want to ensure your post is shared by our official page, tag Stamp Out Hunger by typing @StampOutHunger and select our page when it pops up as a tag option.
- Twitter – Follow the food drive on Twitter at <http://www.twitter.com/StampOutHunger> . Use the official hashtag, #StampOutHunger, to post and share.
- Website – Direct customers, sponsors, etc. to <http://www.stampouthungerfooddrive.us> . The site will help explain how the Letter Carrier Food Drive works, who we help, who our national partners are, Tool Kit information and how to volunteer locally.
- Email – Feel free to e-mail any pictures of food drive events to lettercarrierfooddrive@nalc.org . Photos from past food drives can be used for “Throwback Thursday” (#TBT) posts.
- YouTube – Officially approved videos can be found at www.youtube.com/ThePostalRecord . These short videos can be used at standups or when seeking out a sponsor.

Advertising the food drive is key for a successful food drive! NALC branches are encouraged to work with local businesses and community organizations to get the food drive message out to the public. This can be accomplished by a variety of methods; using billboards, lawn signs, banners, posters, flyers, church bulletins, sport event programs, your branch publication, etc.

With any method of advertising, the Family Circus cartoon can be added for a visual touch that customers have come to recognize. This yearly cartoon is gifted to the Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive by Jeff Keane. This cartoon has been an important part of our food drive since before the drive became a national event over a quarter century ago. It really adds color and fun to our other artwork. So we can connect to more communities throughout the country, the cartoon is available in English and Spanish. The order form is in the Food Drive Coordinator's Packet. Posters can also be ordered through the "Members Only" portal or the food drive Toolkit.

T-Shirts, buttons, and hats are a visual advertisement that most places allow for carriers and other postal employees to wear for the week prior to food drive day. (See order form in the packet) Some areas have local print shops that will take Stamp Out Hunger t-shirt orders and they are locally priced. These items should also be offered to sponsors, food bank personnel, political officials, etc. The more people advertising the food drive, the better chance of Stamping Out Hunger!

SAMPLE LETTER TO YOUR LOCAL NEWS MEDIA (2018)

Dear Editor:

Saturday, May 12th marks the 26th anniversary of one of America's great days of giving — the National Association of Letter Carriers Stamp Out Hunger Food drive. Letter carriers walk through the community every day, often coming face to face with a sad reality for too many, hunger.

So, each year on the second Saturday in May, letter carriers across the country collect non-perishable food donations from our customers. These donations go directly to local food pantries to provide food to people in (insert name of city) who need our help.

Last year, we collected over 75 million pounds of food nationally, feeding an estimated 64 million people. Over the course of its 25-year history, the drive has collected approximately 1.6 billion pounds of food, thanks to a postal service universal delivery network that spans the entire nation, including Puerto Rico, Guam and U.S. Virgin Islands.

The need for food donations is great. Currently, 49 million Americans—1 in 6—are unsure where their next meal is coming from. Thirteen million are children who feel hunger's impact on their overall health and ability to perform in school. More than 5 million seniors over age 60 are food insecure, with many who live on fixed incomes often too embarrassed to ask for help.

Our food drive's timing is crucial. Food banks and pantries often receive the majority of their donations during the Thanksgiving and Christmas holiday seasons. By springtime, many pantries are depleted, entering the summer low on supplies at a time when many school breakfast and lunch programs are not available to children in need.

Participating in this year's Letter Carrier Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive is simple. Just leave a non-perishable food donation in a bag by your mailbox on Saturday, May 12th and your letter carrier will do the rest. Please help us in our fight to end hunger, as we celebrate our 26th anniversary year in America's great day of giving.

Sincerely,

(Your name)

2018 POSTAL SERVICE ACTION PLAN

Instructions from US Postal Service Headquarters

USPS MANAGERS: Support from local postmasters, managers and supervisors is essential to the Food Drive's success. Local management will work closely with the food drive coordinator, the NALC branch and letter carriers to ensure promotional materials for the food drive are properly delivered and the food can be efficiently collected by carrier while on duty, knowing the leadership of the Postal Service and the NALC/NRLCA are firmly behind efforts to help feed the hungry.

Coordinate: Postmasters and/or their designated food drive liaison will meet with the local NALC branch, food drive coordinator and other partners well in advance to coordinate the personnel, equipment and trucks that will be needed on May 12th.

Communicate: Managers and NALC food drive representatives will make all employees aware of the drive and ask their help to make it a success. Managers will encourage and support media attention and be prepared to do interviews with TV, radio and newspaper media to discuss Postal Service involvement.

G-10 Permit: Use of the U.S. Postal Service G-10 permit has been authorized by the PMG to support the food drive. The use of G-10 permit is extended to special food drive bags as a customer convenience to collect food donations. Although Postal Bulletin 21907 (dated 11-23-95) requires the use of mailing statements for G-10 mailings, this requirement has been waived for the food drive. This eliminates the need for mailing statements from participating locations. The cost of mailings will not be charged back to individual post offices. The cost will be captured at USPS Headquarters based on the number of food drive postcards ordered. Questions regarding these mailings should be directed to your District Accounting Office.

Facilitate: Make arrangements for a USPS semi or large truck to be available on May 14th to pick up food collected at each station and deliver it to the Food Bank and/or pantries. Otherwise, work with other local trucking partners or the local Food Bank to ensure vehicles and volunteers are available.

The Postal Service contact is Roy Betts, USPS Corporate Communications; 475 L'Enfant Plaza, SW, Room 10546, Washington, D.C. 20260-3100. He can also be reached at 202-268-3207 or by email at roy.a.betts@usps.gov

Dear Mr. Rolando:

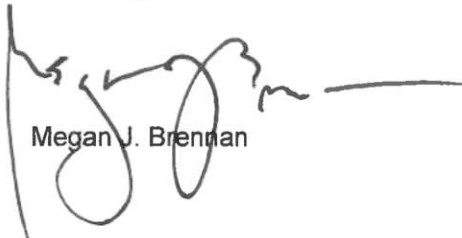

The U.S. Postal Service is proud to support the National Association of Letter Carriers' 2018 Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive.

Last year, our carriers collected 75.3 million pounds of food from 10,000 cities and towns in all 50 states, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and Guam. Since the drive began in 1993, total donations have surpassed 1.6 billion pounds of food. Together, we are continuing to make a difference in the lives of millions of Americans in need.

The Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive comes at an especially important time for our country's school children and their families. Planning the collection on May 12, ahead of the summer months, will enable communities to provide timely assistance to millions who rely on school lunch programs the rest of the year.

I encourage postal employees across the country to support the food drive by delivering postcards and promotional bags in advance and collecting donations on May 12. I look forward to working with you as we deliver food for families in need and help stamp out hunger. Let's make this year's food drive the best in our history.

Sincerely,

Dear Fred:

Every day, millions of hard-working American families struggle to put food on the table, but nobody should struggle alone. That is why the United Food and Commercial Workers International Union (UFCW) is proud to continue our partnership with the Letter Carriers' "Stamp Out Hunger" food drive—the largest single-day food drive in our country. By working together, we have the power to make a real difference and to help feed America's hungry.

Our 1.3 million-plus members work around the clock feeding and clothing America—in your neighborhood grocery store, meatpacking or food manufacturing plant, or the department store down the road. You connect America through the mail and are the engine that fuels America's businesses. Together, we are an integral part of America's communities and a proud union family.

The simple fact is that, no child, hard-working person or family should go hungry in America but these struggles are something we see all the time. Every time someone comes through a grocery checkout line and has to put an item back because they cannot afford it, we see the pain it causes, and it motivates us to help fix it. We know you have the same connection to the neighbors you see every day and are equally motivated to not let the scourge of hunger strike into your communities.

Unions like ours have been giving back and providing critical support to communities across the nation since they first existed, and we are proud to once again partner with you to continue to make the "Stamp Out Hunger" food drive a success for its 26th year.

Our partnership in previous years has collected millions of pounds of food for local food banks across America, and we are excited about the potential to do even more for our communities this year. We are working with our employers, members, and friends and allies to make this year's "Stamp Our Hunger" drive the most successful yet. You can visit our website at www.ufcw.org/stampouthunger to find and share food drives and other donation events around the country.

Helping feed America's hungry is a mission we are proud to share, and by participating in the Letter Carriers' "Stamp Out Hunger" food drive, we can give American families wholesome, nutritious food. It is a crucial step to creating the better America we all believe in.

Sincerely,

Your Friends and Neighbors

We're the United Food and Commercial Workers International Union (UFCW) – a proud union family that helps feed, serve, and provide for America's hard-working families.

From retail stores to pharmacies, food processing to manufacturing, our incredible members work hard because America's working and middle class families work hard. Whether it's at your grocery or a department store, or even your local pharmacy, our 1.3 million members are your friends and neighbors, and we're there to help your family achieve a better life.

It's why every day, all across the towns and cities we call home, we're united behind one goal: helping to improve the lives and futures of working and middle-class families all across America.

We See You Every Day

Our members are proud to be part of your daily lives. From regional to national grocery chains—like Kroger (including Fred Meyer, Ralphs and King Soopers), Albertsons (including Safeway, Vons, Tom Thumb, Randalls, Cars, Pavilion, Acme, Shaw's, Star, Jewel-Osco and Lucky), Supervalu (Cub Foods, Rainbow, and Shoppers Food)—or your local grocer and co-ops, we help put food on America's tables.

Whether you're filling your prescription at CVS or Osco pharmacy, or buying clothes for back-to-school at Macy's, Bloomingdales, or H&M, it's our members, at so many of these stores, who stand with union pride ready to help.

Good, Safe Food is a Priority

Nothing is more important than providing safe food for you and your family. Because of the hard work of hundreds of thousands of UFCW members behind the scenes preparing the food and treats your family loves, we're making sure that it's prepared safely and correctly. In fact, more than 70% of the beef (and 60% of the pork) that our families eat is produced by our members at UFCW-represented packing plants.

Best of all, whether it's the sandwich you prepare for lunch, the bacon you have for breakfast, or the dry goods you pick up at the supermarket, it's our members who help make sure the food you want is ready for you. While you may already have heard of brands like Smithfield, Hormel, Oscar Mayer, Heinz, or Campbell's, we want you to know that the men and women of the UFCW prepare the foods your family loves.

Standing Up for Hard-Working Families

Every hard-working family, no matter where they live, has earned the right to a better life. It's what we believe, and it's why we fight for the issues that can make a real difference in the lives of working and middle-class families. Better wages, better benefits, schedules that give working people control over their lives, and safe and just workplaces are what truly matter.

Whether or not you are a member of the UFCW, providing a better life for others is a responsibility we all share. It's why we are committed to fighting for a living wage, for more affordable health care, for good jobs that can support a family, and for making sure that every worker has the right to negotiate a brighter future.

Feeding Families with Union-Made Food

By joining together, we have an amazing opportunity to make a difference in the lives of millions of America's families who go hungry every day.

In a nation where no one should go hungry, we can help feed millions of working people, many of them children, with the food made by union members.

We hope you will join with us in our efforts to "Stamp Out Hunger" and fill your donation bag with non-perishable goods that are made by our very own UFCW members all around the country.

Thank you again for your support for this incredible cause, and please consider these goods when filling up your donation bag:

I am pleased to announce that United Way will once again partner with the National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC) National Food Drive, Stamp Out Hunger® in 2018. It is our privilege to once again join with organized labor, an invaluable partner in our broader mission to fight for the health, education and financial stability of every person in every community.

In May 2017, the 25th annual Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive collected 75 million pounds of food in one day for individuals and families in need throughout the United States. This was the 14th year in a row that the Food Drive exceeded 70 million pounds, bringing the total amount of food collected since the drive began in 1992 to a staggering 1.5 billion pounds. Behind those numbers are the many individuals and families whose lives have been improved by the passion and hard work of volunteers. Hundreds of United Way-supported food agencies across the country are recipients of donations, helping us meet a vital community need.

The 2018 Letter Carriers Stamp out Hunger Food Drive will take place on Saturday, May 12, 2018. Please promote this drive in your community by encouraging the participation and support of your staff, volunteers and local agencies. United Ways with a Labor Liaison are encouraged to work through the Liaison to coordinate the food drive with NALC leaders in your community.

For additional information about the partnership to Stamp Out Hunger, please contact Nicole Muhammad at (703) 836-7112 extension 465 or Nicole.Muhammad@unitedway.org

Dear Fred:

The National Rural Letter Carriers' Association proudly continues its support of the National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC) annual Food Drive. Postal employees regularly go above and beyond their assigned duties to help their communities in so many ways. Nothing represents this spirit, dedication, and compassion quite like the annual Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive.

On this day, rural and city letter carriers from around the country carry an extra load—quite literally—on top of their regular duties, by collecting countless pounds of food donations from the public to feed those members of the community who are struggling to overcome deprivation and hunger. These donations help to directly restock food banks, pantries, and shelters within the local communities in which they are collected.

Now in its 26th year, this effort has become the largest one-day food drive in the nation. Each bag of donated food represents a meal for a family in need—demonstrating how such a small act of charity can resonate so profoundly in the communities in which we work and live.

Fred, the National Rural Letter Carriers' Association is proud to align ourselves with such a noble and distinguished cause. I thank you and your members personally for championing the fight against hunger in America. I look forward to working with you in order to "Stamp Out Hunger" in 2018.

RE: NALC Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive – May 12, 2018

I am writing to encourage your participation in this year's National Association of Letter Carriers (NALC) Stamp Out Hunger food drive, which will occur on Saturday, May 12.

Last spring, NALC members and other union volunteers collected over 75 million pounds of food during their 25th anniversary Stamp Out Hunger food drive. Since the inception of this annual endeavor, NALC has collected over 1.6 billion pounds of food to replenish community food shelves in thousands of communities throughout the country. This remarkable feat proves what we can accomplish together with commitment, determination and hard work.

While the total pounds of food collected is hard to visualize, the faces of those who are helped by this effort are all too familiar – children, seniors and working families struggling to make ends meet. Working in partnership with AFL-CIO state and local bodies and the Labor Liaison Network, United Way Worldwide, our nation's food security advocates and a host of the other partners, the NALC gets food into the cupboards of those in need.

All people need to do is place a bag of unopened, non-perishable food next to their mailbox before their letter carrier delivers their mail on Saturday, May 12, and the carrier will do the rest. Once collected, the food is taken back to postal stations, sorted, and delivered by union volunteers to area food banks and pantries.

I am proud of our long-standing partnership with NALC in this important effort. Please publicize and promote the May 12 NALC Stamp Out Hunger food drive among your members. With the support of unions and America's working families, the NALC can collect more food and by doing so, help families in need of this critical assistance.

If you have any questions or would like to get more involved with the NALC Stamp Out Hunger food drive, please contact Yael Foa, National Community Engagement United Way Program Coordinator at (215) 439-0676 or yfoa@aflcio.org.

Thank you for supporting the NALC Stamp Out Hunger food drive.

UNITED FOOD & COMMERCIAL WORKERS

Once again this year, our brothers and sisters at United Food & Commercial Workers (UFCW) are the National Premiere Partner in the Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive! UFCW represents over 1.3 million members who work in grocery stores, retail stores, food processing, and numerous other industries.

Their relationship with companies in the food industry will provide endless opportunities and connections with additional local partnerships and others in the “house of labor” across the country. Every branch should make a point to reach out to the nearest UFCW local which can be found at www.ufcw.org.

UFCW local leaders will be able to partner with you in pitching for financial support for bags, volunteers, advertising and other food drive materials from your local and state AFL-CIO councils. Specifically discuss this with your branch and/or state president.

Be sure to say “thank you” to your brothers and sisters in the UFCW and plan for them to be included in your preparations and events on the day of the food drive!

NATIONAL RURAL LETTER CARRIERS’ ASSOCIATION

The National Rural Letter Carriers’ Association (NRLCA) is proud to be a national partner in the food drive.

The NRLCA will assist NALC and the drive’s other sponsors in promoting the collection of nonperishable food. Participation by rural letter carriers, which is on a voluntary basis, will provide an opportunity to collect and distribute donations in underserved areas of the country.

With millions of Americans out of work and facing food insecurity, it is more important than ever for all the letter carriers, city and rural, to continue an active partnership for this very worthy cause.

NRLCA Administrative Assistant to the President Scott Stice will serve as NRLCA contact at 703-797 8406 or sstice@nrlca.org.

AFL-CIO ORGANIZATIONS

AFL-CIO Community Services liaisons and the Labor Agency Network, working with field mobilization staffers, state federations and central labor councils, will provide assistance to NALC branches in coordinating support and recruiting volunteers to assist with collection, sorting and delivery of donated food.

The AFL-CIO plans an active campaign that will help secure broad support, promotion and coverage of the Food Drive through the news media.

Community Services Liaison Yael Foa is the contact at AFL-CIO headquarters. Yael can be reached at 202-639-6245 or by email at yfoa@aficio.org.

LOCAL UNITED WAY

Your local United Way is available to help you make the Food Drive a success. The local agencies are your “go to” for assistance in every community. Depending on the location, Your United Way office may be able to offer assistance with media, printing and logistics, with volunteers and even with financial assistance.

In addition, you can count on your local United Way office to help your branch coordinate the distribution of food to the food banks, pantries and shelters in your community. The United Way know who needs your help, know who can provide you with help and knows how to get it done in your community.

United Way Worldwide contact is Nicole Muhammad, assistant to the vice president of UWW’s Department of Labor Participation. She can be reached at 703-836-7112 ext. 465, or nicole.muhammad@unitedway.org.

SUBJECT: Stamp Out Hunger National Food Drive—May 12

On Saturday, May 12, postal employees and customers from coast to coast will demonstrate their generosity by supporting the National Association of Letter Carriers' National Stamp Out Hunger Food Drive.

I'm asking you to start planning now to have the necessary operational, staffing and transportation plans in place to support this important annual event.

I encourage you to give your full support by approving any appropriate local promotions proposed by NALC members (such as carriers replacing uniform shirts with the Food Drive T-shirt during the campaign and wearing lapel buttons promoting the food drive) and assisting with the distribution of special bags as a customer convenience to collect food donations. Keep in mind, however, that we cannot directly or indirectly ask our customers to participate. The NALC is responsible for soliciting donations to the food drive.

Last year's drive resulted in carriers collecting 75.3 million pounds of food from local communities around the country, Puerto Rico, Guam and the US Virgin Islands. That accomplishment represented the 14th consecutive year the drive has surpassed 70 million pounds. Since the program began in 1993, employees and customers have contributed 1.6 billion pounds of non-perishable food. The Stamp Out Hunger food drive is the nation's largest one-day campaign to collect food for distribution to needy families.

With your leadership and support, we will increase food donations, help those in need and make this year's food drive the best ever. As always, I thank you for your continued leadership and support in this important effort.
