Dear Brian:

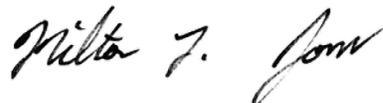

The United Food and Commercial Workers International Union (UFCW) is once again proud to be a national partner of the National Association of Letter Carriers' (NALC) annual Stamp Out Hunger food drive on Saturday, May 9, 2026, the largest single-day food drive in our country.

The Stamp Out Hunger food drive is an impactful way to address food insecurity in our country, which continues to have a devastating effect on the health, education and future of American families. According to Feeding America, over 48 million Americans—including one in five children—are struggling with food insecurity. With food prices rising and funding cuts to vital food assistance programs, initiatives like the Stamp Out Hunger food drive play a crucial role in addressing hunger in America by making it easier to donate food and ensuring that food banks are well-stocked and ready to assist individuals and families in need.

The UFCW represents thousands of essential workers in grocery stores and meatpacking and food processing plants in communities across the country. Our members play a vital role in strengthening communities by making sure that everyone has access to the basic necessities for a healthy life. The NALC's members also play an important role in strengthening communities by helping people stay connected to friends and family members through the mail, as well as delivering critical necessities. Together, we're in a unique position to help fight hunger in America.

The UFCW is working with our members, employers, friends, and allies to make this year's Stamp Out Hunger food drive a success. We encourage everyone to take part by donating non-perishable food items and leaving them by their mailbox on Saturday May 9 for their letter carrier to collect. Every donation—no matter the size—helps to support local food banks and the individuals and families who rely on them. Together, we can help Stamp Out Hunger in communities across the country.

Sincerely and fraternally,

International President
