House committee releases postal reform 'discussion draft'

The leaders of the House committee with USPS oversight have released a discussion draft of a potential postal reform bill. NALC's initial review has revealed a number of shortcomings and omissions—and at least one provision we simply cannot support. Click here to read more.

House committee approves appropriations bill preserving six-day language

The House Committee on Appropriations has approved the Subcommittee on Financial Services and General Government's fiscal year 2017 bill, which—among other things—preserves long-standing six day mail delivery language. Click here to read more.

Senate committee preserves six-day language in unanimous FY2017 FSGG appropriations bill

The Senate Committee on Appropriations has voted to approve Fiscal Year 2017 Financial Services and General Government (FSGG) appropriations measure, which includes the long-standing six day mail delivery language. Click here to read more.

FY 2017 appropriations: Where are we now?

Every year, NALC lobbies Congress to ensure resolutions that support our issues are included as spending packages move forward. This year's appropriations process, however, is significantly more different than ever before. Click here to read more.
