

NALC

Legislative Update

Rolando testifies before House committee hearing on postal reform

On May 11, NALC President Fredric Rolando testified before a House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform hearing titled, “Reforming the Postal Service: Finding a Viable Solution.” Click here to read more.

Wyden launches vote-by-mail campaign nationwide

Sen. Ron Wyden (D-OR) has launched a new campaign to expand the Oregon-style vote-by-mail program nationwide, as a way of tearing down barriers to voting. Click here to read more.

IL senators introduce bill to name post office after former Illinois state chair

Illinois’s senators have introduced a bill to name a post office after the late Ken Christy, the Illinois State Association president who died unexpectedly in March. Click here to read more.

House passes anti-fed administrative leave bills

Two bills that, if passed, would be harmful to federal employees recently were approved by the U.S. House of Representatives on a voice vote. Click here to read more.

Resolution tracker

H.Res. 12 (six-day):
233 co-sponsors
— Fact Sheet

H.Res. 28 (door delivery):
188 co-sponsors
— Fact Sheet

H.Res. 54 (service standards):
233 co-sponsors
— Fact Sheet

PA activists visit DC for lobby day

Activists from the Pennsylvania state association headed to Capitol Hill to talk about the issues most important to letter carriers with their members of Congress. Click here to read more.

The AFL-CIO’s Union Plus benefits help active and retired NALC members and their families save money and support them through major milestones, celebrations and hardships. Click here to learn more.