House appropriations subcommittee advances bill with six-day mail provision

The House Committee on Appropriations' Subcommittee on Financial Services and General Government has passed an appropriations measure for FY 2017 preserving six-day mail delivery for the millions of businesses and households that depend on it. Click here to read more.

The House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform recently has been working to build a bipartisan postal reform bill, including inviting NALC President Rolando to testify at a hearing on the matter. A bill is expected to be introduced in early June, and this could be our last chance to demonstrate how many lawmakers are opposed to dismantling vital service standards. Ask your member of Congress to support the resolutions below (if they haven't already).
