COLA-related measures introduced in House and Senate

Three pieces of legislation have been introduced to provide relief to Social Security and other beneficiaries who are not scheduled to get a 2016 cost-of-living adjustment. Click here to read more.

When was the last time you talked with your member of Congress?

With the 2016 legislative calendar set, lawmakers across the country are scheduling opportunities to hear from their constituents when they are at home. These town halls present NALC members with the opportunity to update their particular representatives —and the public—on the value that letter carriers and the U.S. Postal Service bring to communities.
