Legislative Update

6-day part of funding measure

On June 17, the House Appropriations Committee approved the Fiscal Year 2016 Subcommittee on Financial Services and General Government's (FSGG) annual appropriations bill. As the bill relates to the Postal Service (and following extensive lobbying efforts by NALC activists and other interested parties), the committee preserved the longstanding budget language that mandates USPS to maintain six-day mail delivery. 'Fast Track' déjà vu

The House of Representatives cleared a stand-alone Trade Promotion Authority (TPA) bill—better known as “Fast Track.” The Senate is expected to vote on it next week. So our battle against Fast Track is far from over. Click here to read more.

Senate committee advances Board of Governors nominee

On June 10, the Senate Homeland Security and Government Affairs Committee (HSGAC) held a hearing on U.S. Postal Service Board of Governor nominee David Shapira. In his testimony, Shapira said the Postal Service is “a bedrock of this House committee examines fair competition in international shipping

On June 16, a House committee held a hearing to examine the Universal Postal Union’s (UPU) terminal dues rate-setting structure and process. The UPU’s role is to coordinate international postal policies and procedures in an effort to guarantee mail service around the world. Click here to read more.
