

Spread the word »

H.Res. 30 to H.Res. 12: Where are they now?

In the House, 158 members stand with us on H.Res. 12, a resolution to preserve six-day mail delivery. However, we have done some digging and found that some of NALC's old friends are missing from the list of co-sponsors. Click here to read more.

---

Automatic voter registration now the law in Oregon

Oregon Gov. Kate Brown this week signed into law the state's new "motor voter" bill, designed to use the secure Postal Service delivery network to remove barriers to voter registration and to make it as easy as possible for eligible Oregonians to receive a ballot. Click here to read more.

---

Union presidents urge lawmakers to reject fast-tracking trade deals

Letter carriers have a direct stake in the outcome of trade talks. That's why NALC joined 59 AFL-CIO-affiliated unions in sending a letter to congressional lawmakers, opposing the use of "fast track"

Resolution Tracker

Our numbers are growing on key resolutions. With activity on postal reform expected as early as spring, let's keep the momentum moving to demonstrate support for services.

- H.Res. 12 (six-day delivery): 158 co-sponsors
- H.Res. 28 (door delivery): 90 co-sponsors
- H.Res. 54 (service standards): 121 co-sponsors

Town halls

Click here for a list of upcoming town halls conducted by members of Congress. NALC activists are encouraged to attend these events and engage with their representatives on issues of importance to letter carriers and the U.S. Postal Service.

authority. Click here to read more.

---

Battles in the states

Working families continue to face attacks on numerous fronts. Some of the biggest struggles these families encounter take place in state capitals, where legislators and governors set the agendas.

Click here to read more.

---

House budget 'plan'? Cut letter carrier pay (again)

The federal spending plan for Fiscal Year 2016 released by the House of Representatives on Tuesday once again aims to cut letter carriers' pay.

Click here to read more.

---

New bill aims to repeal Social Security penalties

Last month, Reps. Rodney Davis (R-IL) and Adam Schiff (D-CA) introduced the Social Security Fairness Act (H.R. 973), a bill that calls for repealing provisions in current law that reduce Social Security benefits of annuitants who have paid their fair share through their years of public service.

Click here to read more.

---

NALC kicks off legislative session with lobby visits

In February, more than 150 letter carriers came to Washington, DC, to participate in NALC's advocacy efforts as the 114th Congress was getting down to business. Click here to read more.

Connect with us

National Association of Letter Carriers
100 Indiana Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20001-2144
202-393-4695

UNSUBSCRIBE