

John Kane

John is the Senior Government Affairs Advisor and a Minority Senior Professional Staffer for Senator Carper (D-DE) on the Senate Committee on Homeland Security and Government Affairs. He is primarily responsible for overseeing the committee's policy and staff charged with addressing postal reform. He has over 15 years of Government experience on and off Capitol Hill, 10 of which have included a primary role in postal issues and been on both sides of the aisle - Republican and Democrat. He believes reform, after nearly a decade of planning Post-the 2006 Postal Accountability bill, is nearly in our grasp.
