Thousands of letter carriers nationwide rolled into bowling alleys to roll for MDA on Nov. 7 for the second annual NALC MDA Bowlathon. By day's end, they had topped last year's inaugural bowlathon fundraising levels.

Several hundred branches took part in the fundraising for the Muscular Dystrophy Association. With the help of eight national officers, and staff from Headquarters and the Health Benefit Plan (who contributed $11,000), the bowlers raised a grand total of $355,522.

"Letter carriers raised more than a third of a million dollars for MDA," said President Fredric Rolando. "Not bad for one afternoon."

National MDA Coordinator Jim Williams already is planning to exceed the fundraising tally in this year's bowlathon. "With our numbers and our dedication, we know we can do even more for people with muscular dystrophy and their families."

Totals that were received at NALC Headquarters in Washington by Dec. 15 are below, with branches listed numerically within each of the NALC's 15 national regions.
