

Every contribution helps the effort

Some letter carriers prefer to give to COLCPE by simply sending a donation. They might respond to an appeal in The Postal Record, or at a branch meeting or union rally. Some pull out their checkbooks when they read about the outrageous attacks on union members and the Postal Service coming from some elements in Congress and state capitols. Some are retirees who prefer not to give from their annuity but still want to support their union by backing COLCPE.

Whatever their motivation, and whatever the amount they gave, these donors are just as important as the automatic contributors listed earlier. They assure that COLCPE has the funds it needs to succeed as we speak with a single, strong voice.

If you gave as an individual in 2011 by sending a donation rather than through automatic payroll deductions, your total amount is listed here, even if you gave more than once.

To make a single donation to COLCPE, please mail a check made out to "COLCPE" to COLCPE, National Association of Letter Carriers, 100 Indiana Ave. NW, Washington, DC 20001.

* This list includes donors whose contributions were recorded without enough information to establish their identity fully. An example would be a money order accompanied by a name but no hometown or branch number. Another could be the use of a nickname not recorded in NALC's computer database, or a name that is shared by more than one member. Some may be Auxiliary members who did not identify themselves as such, or other supporters who failed to make their status clear.
