

NALC announces e-Activist and LCPF award categories

Director of Legislative and Political Affairs
Kori Blalock Keller

As NALC's 70th biennial national convention draws closer, the Department of Legislative and Political Affairs is pleased to announce updated e-Activist and Letter Carrier Political Fund award categories. These awards recognize the outstanding participation of NALC members in our efforts to advocate for the issues most important to letter carriers on Capitol Hill and help elect lawmakers who will deliver our message to Washington.

Because of the momentum we've built, lawmakers know who we are and what we do: put boots on the ground. We're proud to recognize those who have gone above and beyond in their advocacy.

The e-Activist awards granted at the national convention will reflect data on file on July 15, 2016. The LCPF awards granted at the national convention will reflect efforts from July 15, 2014, through July 15, 2016. The award categories include:

e-Activist Network Awards

Branch e-Activists: Branches will be divided into three categories based on the number of members (e.g., under 249, 250 to 999, and 1,000 or more). The branch with the highest number of e-Activists in each category will be recognized.

State e-Activists: State associations will be divided into small, medium and large groups (e.g., 1 to 1,999, 2000 to 7,499, and 7,500 or more) and awarded for the highest e-Activist participation in each category.

Regional e-Activists: NALC's 15 regions will be divided into small, medium and large groups (e.g., under 14,999, 15,000 to 19,999, and 20,000 or more) and awarded for the most e-Activist participation in each category.

Letter Carrier Political Fund awards

Branch LCPF contributions: Branches will be divided into three categories based on the number of members (e.g., under 249, 250 to 999, and 1,000 or more members). The branch with the highest per capita contribution in each category will be recognized.

State LCPF contributions: The state association with the highest per capita contribution will be recognized.

Branch member LCPF contributions: Branches will be divided into three categories based on the number of members (e.g., under 249, 250 to 999, and 1,000 or more). The branch with the highest percentage of members contributing to LCPF in each category will be recognized.

State member LCPF contributions: The state association with the highest percentage of members contributing to LCPF will be recognized.

NALC appreciates the hard work that letter carriers invest into ensuring that we elect those friendly to our issues. If you have any questions about the categories, contact the Legislative and Political Affairs Department.
