

Get the NALC app for bargaining, other news

For updates on bargaining and other contractual news, make sure you've downloaded the NALC Member App to your iPhone or Android smartphone. When news breaks, it'll be announced there first through push notification, before appearing on nalc.org, or in the NALC Bulletin and The Postal Record.

You can install the NALC Member App by going to your phone's app store and searching for "NALC Member App." Make sure you mark areas of interest so you can get push notifications tailored to you.

If a negotiated agreement is reached, all active NALC members will receive detailed information on the proposed agreement and an extended description will appear in The Postal Record. PR

NALC Executive Council meets in Washington

Members of the NALC Executive Council met at NALC Headquarters in January (pictured left and below) to discuss important issues facing letter carriers. Some of the items the council addressed included ongoing contract negotiations for a new collective-bargaining agreement, conversions of city carrier assistants, workers' comp, organizing, the grievance/arbitration process and other contractual issues. The council also discussed key legislative items, including three House resolutions pertaining to maintaining six-day delivery, protecting door-to-door delivery and restoring postal service standards. PR
