I recommend that all trustees, as well as other branch officers, review and consult the DOL guide for assistance before, during and after an audit to ensure that the branch’s funds and other assets are safeguarded and expended appropriately for the benefit of the branch and its members. The planning phase of the audit involves meeting with the other trustees to discuss responsibilities and to assign duties. A letter or other communication should be sent to the president and secretary/treasurer of the branch to advise them of when the audit will be held and which items (e.g., checkbooks, canceled checks, vouchers/warrants, journals, minutes, etc.) the trustees will need to complete the audit. Trustees should review financial forms such as 990s and LM reports, as well as the NALC Constitution, the branch bylaws and the branch’s most recent audit report before starting. The following is an abbreviated checklist of the 10 steps to be performed during the audit as listed in the DOL’s guide:

Step 1: Trace canceled checks to the bank statements and disbursements journal.

Step 2: Scan the disbursements journal and record unusual entries.

Step 3: Trace the branch roster’s total dues deposited by NALC Headquarters on behalf of the branch to the receipts journal and bank statements.

Step 4: Confirm that receipts from all other sources (interest, rent, raffles, etc.) have been properly recorded and deposited. Trustees may need to refer to the branch’s minutes to determine if raffle money was deposited.

Step 5: Identify all bank accounts, verify their ending balances, and review withdrawals and transfers. Verify that all withdrawals during the audit period from savings, money market accounts or certificates of deposit were used for legitimate union purposes, as approved by the membership.

Step 6: Inventory fixed assets such as computers, photocopiers, filing cabinets, etc. If a list does not exist, create one—either indicating their original cost, estimated current value or value as carried in the branch’s books (if a list exists), as well as the asset’s location.

Step 7: Confirm that the annual LM report for the latest completed fiscal year was filed on time.

Step 8: Determine whether financial records were properly maintained. (For length of retaining records, see Chapter 6 of the NALC Branch Officer’s Guide to Finance and Administration for more information. This guide also can be found on the NALC website on the Secretary-Treasurer’s page under resources.)

Step 9: Ensure that all officers and employees who handle funds are adequately bonded. (Fiduciary officers can consult Chapter 5 of the NALC Branch Officers Guide to Finance and Administration for more information.)

Step 10: Confirm that no officers or employees were loaned more than $2,000 by the branch. Loans exceeding $2,000 are prohibited by the Labor Management Reporting and Disclosure Act of 1959.

After the audit has been completed, the trustees should review their findings, resolve any loose ends, document their work and report their findings. This will include determining whether any changes are needed to comply with DOL requirements and making a list of any internal financial-control weaknesses or problem areas. Unless the trustees have found significant discrepancies in the branch’s records and need outside assistance, they should meet with the principal financial officers of the branch and discuss their findings and resolve any concerns. The audit findings should then be reported to the branch.

Please review the entire guide for conducting audits to gain a better understanding of every aspect concerning a branch audit. The guide includes sample letters, checklists, common problems and indicators of possible misuse of funds.

Thanks to all branch trustees who are diligent and thorough in performing their duties.

As announced previously, all amendments to be considered during the 71st Biennial Convention, July 16-20, must arrive in my office by May 17. In addition, only resolutions received in my office by May 17 will be printed in the Resolutions and Amendments book. Resolutions properly submitted after that date may still be presented to the delegates at the convention. Delegate registration closes on May 17 as well. Branches wishing to sell items in the designated branch sales area during the convention must contact my office to secure guidelines and forms. The completed forms must be returned to Headquarters by April 2.
