LIKE HELL!

NALC ONLY SUCCEEDS

WHEN YOU'RE PART OF THE FIGHT

The Letter Carrier Political Fund (LCPF) is NALC's political action committee (PAC) that powers our voice and influence on Capitol Hill. Congress initiates policies that affect our collective-bargaining rights, health care and retirement benefits, and the operations of the Postal Service, so federal elected officials deeply matter. Letter carriers need a voice when lawmakers make decisions regarding our jobs and retirements. One of our main tools to achieve this is LCPF, which relies solely on voluntary donations from NALC members and their families.

"Thanks to our generous LCPF contributors, NALC has a strong and respected voice on Capitol Hill," NALC President Brian L. Renfroe said. "These funds, and the strategic ways we use them, have been key to all our legislative successes and our ability to defend letter carriers' rights. Bipartisanship has always guided LCPF, and as we continue to grow our power through the PAC in the coming year, it will remain central."

While we are in a solid place in the legislative and political sphere, we are not meeting our full potential. Currently, only 12 percent of NALC members contribute to the PAC. If that number were to double or triple, our impact would be exponential.

"NALC is not a 12 percent union," President Renfroe said. "Our members give 100 percent to our organizing, representation and community service efforts. It's time we bring that same mindset to LCPF."

While signing up for LCPF is one of the best investments you can make in your job and retirement, the current process could be improved. Signing up can be time-consuming and involves various forms. Fortunately, a portion of the 2023-2026 National Agreement simplifies the process.

The agreement allows NALC to take over the collection of dues, which will be fully implemented this year. In short, this will make signing up much easier for new, current and retired letter carriers. As this new process is being finalized, the current sign-up process is still in place, and all the necessary forms to join LCPF are included in this magazine.

"When it's easier to sign up, the possibilities for our PAC, and the results we could achieve, are endless," Renfroe said. "We have accomplished a lot with the help of LCPF in recent years. If we come together and increase LCPF participation by 30, 15, or even 5 percent, LCPF could quickly become one of the most influential PACs in the labor movement and, indeed, in all of Washington."

LCPF IS KEY FOR OFFENSE AND DEFENSE

LCPF delivers real results. Last year, we heavily leaned on our LCPF reserves when Republican leaders on Capitol Hill began an aggressive push using budget reconciliation—a legislative shortcut that bypasses the Senate filibuster—to move their tax and spending plans forward with a simple majority vote in both chambers.

Conservative lawmakers on the House Committee on Oversight and Government Reform made several proposals aimed at reducing federal employee benefits or increasing what they pay for them, including:

- Raising the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS) contribution rate to 4.4 percent—increasing out-of-pocket costs for workers.

- Eliminating the FERS Special Annuity Supplement—cutting early retirement income.
- Basing the FERS retiree benefit on high-5 instead of high-3 salary—reducing final benefit amounts.
- Enacting the Federal Employees Health Benefits (FEHB) Protection Act (H.R. 7868)—reworking eligibility or cost-sharing.
- Converting new federal workers to at-will employment unless they accept higher FERS contribution rates—weakening job protections unless employees agree to pay more into retirement.
- Charging fees for federal employee Merit Systems Protection Board appeals—potentially pricing out workers from fair due process.

They also considered eliminating official time unless unions compensate the federal government, adjusting the limit of federal employee buyouts, and moving the FEHB program from a premium-share model to a voucher model.

LCPF was instrumental in helping us defeat all these proposals by the time the One Big Beautiful Bill was signed into law. Few unions and other groups came out of the process unscathed. A strong LCPF coupled with NALC's incredible fight and determination saved our retirement benefits and those of millions of other federal employees.

Letter carriers have spent years establishing relationships with members of Congress and their staff, and in Washington with LCPF. We use LCPF to support those who align with our values and goals. Regardless of political affiliation, we are committed to backing individuals who can help us achieve our objectives.

NALC is known to have one of the most bipartisan PACs in the labor movement. We proudly wear this badge of honor because, as we have seen over and over, success does not come from one side or the other. Bipartisanship is top of mind in every single one of our political efforts, and we will continue to use LCPF as a tool to establish and strengthen relationships with legislators on both sides of the aisle.

LCPF is not just for defense. We also use it to help elect lawmakers who will support letter carriers and our priority legislation. For more information on what we're working to achieve on Capitol Hill, see page 3.

HOW LCPF WORKS

Recent years have proven that a strong LCPF delivers results. But exactly how does it function, and what is its role in action?

LCPF is a voluntary PAC that takes donations only from letter carriers and their family members. Campaign fundraising is heavily regulated by federal law, so union dues cannot be used for political campaign contributions.

First, LCPF directly supports candidates' campaigns by providing the resources they need to communicate with voters. It takes a good deal of money for a candidate to run a successful campaign for office—modern campaign techniques for reaching voters can cost a campaign millions of dollars, and the 2026 elections shows all signs of continuing to be expensive. Most candidates rely on their allies for help. LCPF ensures that our friends running for office get the support they need. If they didn't get our support, the forces in Congress who want to take away everything we've earned—our health care, our pensions, our collective-bargaining rights—would likely prevail because their allies, primarily corporations and wealthy individuals, have deep pockets. With razor-thin margins and widening divisions in Congress, we must work for every inch of ground.

Second, LCPF devotes resources to get-out-the-vote efforts. This vital effort involves direct member engagement through coordinated work with our brothers and sisters in the labor movement. As part of these efforts, letter carriers reach out to labor voters to urge them to vote for pro-worker candidates and to help them with needs such as registering to vote, locating their precincts or voting by mail.

Third, the political fund supports communications, education and regular outreach throughout the election cycle to our members, so that they are well informed about voter registration, early voting, absentee voting and voting by mail, candidates, issues and state policies. Led by five legislative and political organizers (LPOs) at the regional level and hundreds of letter carrier congressional liaisons who monitor individual members of Congress and educate them—with the backing of all NALC members who participate in our grassroots efforts—the outreach program gets results because LCPF sets the stage.

“With so much at stake, NALC’s legislative efforts are one of the most impactful parts of our union’s work,” NALC President Renfroe said. “The best and easiest way you can contribute to this effort is with a contribution to LCPF.”

If you’re already an LCPF contributor, please join us in our efforts to help us grow our PAC. Ask five of your branch members if they are contributors. If they aren’t, explain the importance of LCPF and encourage them to sign up. Every contributor and every dollar power the LCPF.

To acknowledge those who support the LCPF, every donor is recognized each year in a special issue of The Postal Record. The list of donors who supported the LCPF in 2025 begins on page 28. The list includes the percentage of carriers from each branch and state that contribute and the per capita contribution.

If you didn’t give to LCPF last year, please consider doing so this year. The amount you give isn’t important—participation is. As with all our union efforts, we are stronger together.

HOW TO GIVE TO LCPF

The easiest way to support LCPF is to sign up for payroll deduction through PostalEASE, which most LCPF supporters do. Payroll deduction makes supporting the LCPF easy and affordable. This also allows the LCPF to plan strategically, based on steady, consistent support.

Career carriers and CCAs can sign up for LCPF donations through payroll deduction. However, CCAs must sign up again following a five-day break in service, and former CCAs who have converted to career status must sign up again following their conversion.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

NALC is fortunate that 93 percent of letter carriers choose to join our union. We have a history of successful organizing because our 290,000 active and retired members know our union delivers results.

Many external factors affect our jobs and retirements, including what occurs in the halls of Congress. Elected federal officials have a say in the Postal Service's operations as well as our health care and retirement benefits.

Through our political action committee (PAC), the Letter Carrier Political Fund (LCPF), NALC has a respected voice in Washington; however, our voice could be much louder.

Currently, only 12 percent of NALC members give to the LCPF. With these contributions, NALC has worked to get pro-letter carrier candidates from both parties elected, participated in get-out-the-vote efforts nationwide and, most importantly, successfully used our influence both offensively and defensively. Last year started off with a major victory for many of our retired members when the Social Security Fairness Act was signed into law. LCPF's impact helped make it a major bipartisan effort, delivering a win after a 40-year fight.

Much of the rest of the year was devoted to defense, as we faced one of our union's most intense legislative battles to date in the budget reconciliation process. Proposals to reduce our retirement benefits, or increase what we pay for them, came up repeatedly. Each time, as our activists fought hard, we continued to tap into LCPF's influence, and all these harmful proposals were ultimately removed.

While we do not know what 2026 has in store, last year taught us that we must be prepared for whatever comes our way. While we maintain our defenses, we are constantly seeking opportunities to advance NALC's legislative agenda.

That's why now, perhaps more than ever, it's critical to grow LCPF's power. If the 93 percent of letter carriers who choose to be members of our union also contributed to LCPF, NALC would undoubtedly have one of the most influential political voices on Capitol Hill.

If you are already an LCPF contributor, I would like to thank you for joining the fight.

If you haven't signed up to contribute yet, I encourage you to do so as soon as possible. It's the easiest way to join the fight for the future and security of your job and retirement. Every dollar and every contribution helps. If we all commit to giving a little, it will go a long way in our fight for all letter carriers.

In solidarity,

Brian L. Renfro
President
